43 Dead In Air Tragedy; CAB Opens Investigation

Carroll of Vanities Fame Among Victims

MT. CARMEL, Pa. — (AP) — Investigators probed the scattered wreckage of a United Airlines DC-6 today, searching for the cause of the crash that took the lives of 43 persons, including that of Theatrical Producer Earl Carroll.

The big airliner, en route from San Diego, Calif., to New York, plowed into a 60,000-volt power line and exploded into flames yesterday afternoon near this eastern Pennsylvania anthracite community.

The wreckage sprawled over an acre of woodland. The bodies—39 passengers, including two infants, and four crew members—were burned and torn, many beyond recognition. Their belongings were scattered everywhere.

"It is as bad a mess as I have ever seen," said Joseph O. Fluett, chief of region one of the civil aeronautics board. Fluett arrived from New York a few hours after the disaster to head the CAB's investigators.

He was joined by experts from the United Airlines, Douglas Aircraft company, manufacturers of the big plane and the Airline Pilots association.

They searched through the wreckage until midnight last night and returned to the task this morning.

"We expect to conduct a thorough and complete investigation but I can see we're going to run into difficulties because the disintegration is so complete," Fluett said.

Representatives of the airlines and state police spent most of last night going through the belongings of the passengers and crew. They found, among other things, a wallet containing Carroll's name and $1.024 cash. And they also found a new baby's purse with a penny inside.

MINERS SHAKEN

Jack Herlihy, vice president in charge of operations for United set up an emergency office in one of the collieries, where 80 miners were shaken as Capt. George Warner jr, pilot of Westmont, Ill., veered away from the anthracite breaker which extended 265 feet into the air.

The airliner, flying not more than 30 feet off the ground, was attempting an emergency landing after one of its motors caught fire. It barely missed the breaker, hit the power line and caromed 200 feet into a hillside. The carburetor from one of the engines was found on "Big Mountain," about 1,200 feet from the wreck

"Flames and smoke flew about 90 feet in the air," said Harry Stibitz, an eyewitness. "The whole scene was like a living hell."

The crash put power lines in the area out of commission and forced shutdown of the Continental, Germantown and Mid-Valley collieries. Emergency service was installed to furnish light for the official investigators and volunteers as they searched the wreckage.

Full electric service was restored shortly before midnight last night but 1,200 miners were still idle today because during the shutdown of the power plant considerable water had flowed into the mines.

WRECKAGE AND VICTIMS—Only scattered bits of wreckage marked today the scene of an airplane tragedy that took 43 lives. The huge United Airlines DC-6 transport struck a transformer (right background, top photo) and high tension wires, then exploded, crashed and burned 14 miles north of Shamokin. Coal Peace Hopes Fade

WASHINGTON —(U.P.)— Sources close to the soft coal dispute said today that another court injunction is the only way to prevent a nationwide coal strike next month.

The case may be sent to the White House today or tomorrow, it was said, to permit President Truman to invoke the injunction machinery of the Taft-Hartley law without delay. The current coal contract expires in 12 days.

Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching scheduled a conference with United Mine Workers President John L Lewis and soft coal operators for a "last stab" effort to break their deadlocked contract negotiations.

French Reds Call Strike

PARIS — (U.P.) — Communist labor leaders renewed their attack on the French government today with an order to the advance guard of some 5,000,000 workers to start a general one-hour "warning strike" at 5 p. m.

The one-hour strike originally was called for tomorrow. A new order issued by the General Confederation of Labor, however, called on those workers who are off tomorrow to start their one-hour strike at 5 p. m. today.

It was estimated that about 500,000 workers would be covered by the strike call. Tomorrow's nationwide general strike order is expected to take out between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 men.

Some 50,000 workers were reported idle in sympathy strikes at Clermont-Ferrand, Marseille, Tarbes, Nantes, Limoges and other towns in southern France. But there was no sign of a general spread of strikes.

Germans Get New Money

BERLIN —(AP)— The western allies announced tonight a drastic currency reform to reduce the money in circulation in their zones of occupation and pave the way for German participation in the ERP

They set up a new mark, called the deutsche mark, and provided for the first steps in taking old marks out of trade channels.

All old money and holdings must be registered next week There will be a full week's moratorium on all debts in western Germany.

Germans in the western zones may trade 40 old marks for 40 new marks Sunday. This will leave the 45,000,000 residents entitled to hold only the equivalent of $12 each.

The announcement said the rate at which the mark can be converted into or from other moneys will be announced later The allies also left until later an announcement of how much in savings Germans will be allowed to keep.

Authoritative sources have indicated that further laws will reduce savings and business balances by 90 per cent or more

Drowning Tragedy Averted

Brother, 4, Rescues Baby From Water

A quick-witted four-year-old brother saved two-year-old Gabriel Kent from drowning in an open water-filled meter inspection box on North Franklin avenue yesterday afternoon.

Mrs Oscar Kent, 216 North Franklin avenue, mother of the boys, said she was mowing the lawn when she heard a splash and ran to the scene

"Richard, my four-year-old, was pulling the baby from the manhole. The baby was wet from head to toe."

Mrs Kent said she attempted to measure the depth of the water with a broom and that the water was deeper than the broom length. The mishap occurred, according to Mrs. Kent, in front of the Frank Williams Transfer company on North Franklin.

"The opening is just off the sidewalk and the water is level with the street. The lid is often off and no one pays any attention to it. It's really dangerous for children to be around."

Police said the cover was back on the opening when they arrived

Aid Deadlock Slows Action

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sixteen talk-weary lawmakers looked for a formula today to break their deadlock over how many billions this country will spend on its global aid program

The seven senators and nine House members scheduled another session this afternoon to battle again for a compromise figure covering funds for the European recovery program and aid to Greece, Turkey and China.

Neither group would retreat in a four-hour conference yesterday They came out without a single major agreement, as hopelessly deadlocked as when they began their talks.

Crusade For Children Opens Today

Mansfield today launches a four-day campaign for voluntary contributions to the Crusade for Children.

Twenty-six international organizations are participating in the drive which is headed here by Mayor Roy W Vaughn as chairman and Sherman A Wentz as treasurer.

Representatives of Mansfield business, industry, labor, religion, education and welfare agencies have given their backing to the Crusade which is designed to send food to the millions of hungry children in Europe and other areas of the world.

It is estimated that 4,000,000 hungry children in Europe are now receiving one meal a day, which they would not otherwise have, from the United Nations International Children's Emergency fund. An estimated 60,000,000 other children are now equally in need of food.

To aid these children Mansfielders are asked to make a cash contribution to the Crusade for Children. There will be no personal solicitation.

Appeals are being made through the churches, the daily vacation Bible schools, the recreation program and numerous organizations throughout the city, but there will be no pledges nor anyone calling on anyone else for a gift. The appeal is made generally to all citizens to send their cash or checks to Sherman A. Wentz, treasurer, The Children's Crusade, in care of the Mansfield Savings Trust National bank.

Funds will be forwarded to the New York headquarters of the 26 participating agencies for purchase of food to be sent to the children abroad.

Ganyard To Leave Post Here

Franklin Woos County Agent

GEORGE B. GANYARD

George B. Ganyard, Richland county agricultural extension agent since 1934, has been accepted as agricultural agent for Franklin county (Columbus). Otto Croy, district supervisor of extension work for northeast Ohio, announced in Columbus today.

Only approval by the Ohio State university board of governors is needed to make the appointment effective Sept. 1. Ganyard is a graduate of Ohio State university.

Miss Mabel Spray, county home demonstration agent, said no move would be made to find a replacement for Ganyard until he returns from a five-week special school at the University of Colorado College of Agriculture.

Prominent in agricultural circles throughout the area, Ganyard has taken a special interest in making Richland county's 4-H club one of the most active in the state

He has devoted his entire adult life to farm organization work He served for three years as secretary and five years as president of the Farm Bureau of Medina county.

Ganyard would succeed Jesse Whonsetler, Franklin county agent who will retire Sept. 1.

He is a member of the Optimist club. He resides with his wife and two children at 19 Hoffman avenue. His hobby is gardening.

Ganyard believes firmly that farmers must concentrate on building up and preserving farm resources. He has made extensive use of the farm "balance sheet" to prove in dollars and cents that crops which build up organic content of the soil make money for the farmer.

Interested in agriculture since he was 16, Ganyard once disappointed his father when he refused to take a school teaching job because he wanted to help run the family farm in Medina county

Amendment Favored

C. of C. Directors Want Pay Rate Issue Defined

The Ohio Chamber of Commerce went on record today as favoring wage and hour law amendments which would simplify overtime problems

The directors declared themselves in favor of an amendment defining the term, "regular rate of pay."

The action was taken at the second-day business meeting of the C. of C. directors at the Mansfield-Leland hotel

If this amendment becomes law, Chamber spokesmen said, future "overtime on overtime" questions such as those recently decided by the U.S. Supreme court would be eliminated.

OPPOSE COMPULSORY PLAN

The board also voted to oppose enactment of compulsory disability insurance in Ohio

This afternoon the group was to tour Mohican State park with Louis Bromfield and Bryce Browning, secretary of the Muskingum Conservancy district, acting as guides.

The two-day session will close tonight with a picnic dinner at Malabar farm. The directors will be present at the Bromfield community barn dance which will start at 8:30 p. m.

The directors and their wives had lunch yesterday at the Westinghouse Electric plant and then toured the plant. They attended a dinner at the Westbrook country club in the evening

Greeks Begin Major Drive

ATHENS —(INS)— The Greek army opened a major offensive in northwest Greece today in an effort to wipe out guerrilla forces led personally by Communist Leader Gen Markos Vafthiades.

Five regular divisions were thrown into action on a 200-mile front in the Grammos mountains area just south of the frontier between Albania and northwestern Greece.

Front-line dispatches said that one unit composed of a thousand guerrilla rebels was put to flight after an eight-hour battle in which Greek air force planes participated.

Taft, Stassen Set to Deny Secret Deal

But Aids Reported Seeking Agreement

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The possibility of a deal bringing supporters of Sen. Robert A. Taft and Harold E. Stassen together in Republican presidential balloting arose today out of pre-convention conferences

Aides of Taft and Stassen were reported meeting secretly in an effort to work out an agreement by which the former Minnesota governor might consent to help the Ohioan's bid for top spot on the GOP ticket to be picked here next week. The candidates themselves were reported prepared to deny they were engaged in such maneuvers.

The informal conferences were described by both Taft and Stassen backers as being fenced in with conditions that easily might make any agreement impossible.

1. Stassen will not join any combination until the possibility of his own presidential nomination has been explored thoroughly in early balloting.

2 The Minnesotan's first choice is to switch to Sen Arthur Vandenberg if the Michigan lawmaker still figures materially in voting at any time Stassen might decide he has lost his own chance for the nomination.

The general impression among early arriving delegates is that the boom for Vandenberg has slumped materially from the heights it reached two weeks ago.

3. The timing must be such that it not only would head off any possible bandwagon movement toward Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, but also would squeeze out potential darkhorses such as House Speaker Joseph Martin.

These obstacles were not regarded as insurmountable by some of those in both camps who say they think a Taft-Stassen ticket would be a "natural"

Cover Photo Causes Some Red Faces

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— There was a red face or two at Senator Robert A Taft's headquarters today over an intended convention gesture.

The senator's staff ordered 10,000 copies of "This Week in Philadelphia"—a magazine providing information on restaurants, theaters and other spots around town—for distribution to delegates and visitors

The front cover picture, however, turned out to be that of Gov Thomas E. Dewey.

Arabian Pipe Bid Delayed

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Because of a pipe shortage here at home, the government today put off until September a decision on whether to let 68,000 tons of pipe go to Saudi Arabia for construction of a 1,100-mile pipeline from oil fields there to the Mediterranean.

The Trans-Arabian Pipeline company an American-owned concern, had asked for export licenses for the pipe

The commerce department announced that action on the application has been deferred until the first week in September. At the same time it announced it has granted the Anglo-Iranian Oil company licenses to export 11,650 tons of heavy oil-line pipe to construct a pipeline in Iran.

MINE BLAST KILLS 52

TOKYO —(INS)— The Japanese news agency Kyodo reported today that 52 men were killed, 10 injured and eight others missing in a coal mine explosion in southern Japan.

Battle In Senate Predicted

Measure Goes To Conference

WASHINGTON — (INS)— The House today passed 283 to 130 its emasculated version of the peacetime draft bill which would not begin inductions before next Feb. 1.

The measure now goes to a House-Senate conference which will attempt to work out a compromise act.

The House-passed bill would draft men aged 19 through 25 for one year of compulsory military service.

Administration supporters and chiefs of the armed services are hopeful that the conferees will eliminate what backers of conscription describe as crippling amendments to the legislation.

Senate Republican Policy Leader Taft (R.-Ohio) and House Speaker Martin (R.-Mass.) have agreed that the draft bill must be passed before Congress adjourns.

TIME UNCERTAIN

Whether this can be done by tomorrow night — the time set for adjournment — depends on the bill's fate after the conference report is prepared. Sen. Taylor (D.-Ida.) has threatened a Senate filibuster against the measure.

But both Taft and Martin warned that if necessary Congress will be called back to Washington either after the Republican convention or after both major party conventions to enact the legislation.

The Senate bill, which calls for two years' compulsory service, was passed by a vote of 78-10 last week.

Amendments introduced by House opponents of peacetime conscription literally riddled the Senate-approved version of the bill.

These principally are the amendments cutting the term of service from 24 to 12 months, and postponing inductions through Jan. 31. The House also exempted doctors and dentists from induction.

The House completed consideration of the draft bill last night, but a final vote was blocked by Rep. Marcantonio (ALP- N. Y.) who employed a parliamentary maneuver to delay action.

Marcantonio, aided by Rep. Powell (D.-N. Y.) and Rep. Isacson (ALP-N Y.) carried on delaying tactics in the House in an announced attempt to kill the legislation.

Wherry Gets Set

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Acting Senate Majority Leader Wherry (R.-Nebr.) said today that the Senate will stay in session throughout the night if necessary to break a threatened filibuster against the draft bill.

Wherry predicted that the Senate can break the filibuster planned by Sen. Taylor (D.-Ida.), pass the draft and still adjourn on schedule tomorrow night.

Presidential Tour Ended

WASHINGTON —(UP)— President Truman reutrned to Washington from his 9,000-mile coast-to-coast speech-making tour today just in time for possible new tangles with the Republican-controlled Congress.

The President's special train rolled into Union station here from Baltimore, last stop on his 15-day trip across the nation. The trip started out "non-political" but didn't stay that way long.

Mr. Truman went directly to the White House for conferences with cabinet members and others on issues that have come up during his absence.

For the next few days, he will spend most of his time examining legislation passed by Congress in its rush toward adjournment.

Although Congress recently overrode three of his vetoes in four days, Mr. Truman promised to keep the vetoes coming

"I think I am vetoing in the public interest," he told a back-platform audience in Richmond, Ind., yesterday.

In the past 15 days since he left the White House on June 2, Mr. Truman has told audiences from Maryland to Oregon what he thinks of the Republican congress —which isn't much—and has outlined the basic issues on which he will wage his election campaign.

Senior Club Plans Social At Bellville

4-H Group To Hold Ice Cream Party

An ice cream social will be given by the Richland Senior 4-H club on June 26 at the Scout cabins in Bellville. Plans for the event were completed Tuesday evening at a meeting in the court of appeals room. New members were invited to attend the meeting.

Charles Clingan told the group of the Conference for Rural Youth of the United States of America to be held at State 4-H Camp Jackson Mill, Weston, W. Va. from Oct. 14 to 17.

Bill and Dick Wolford, Ruth and Eleanor Brook are on the committee in charge of the hayride and initiation.

The club will hold its next meeting at the Wolford farm on July 20.

The Big Sisters 4-H club of Bellville has chosen projects of clothing, baking, canning and livestock to work on this year.

Recently elected officers of the group are Helen Frech, president; Marilyn Swank, vice president; Anna Lou Long, secretary-treasurer, Viola Litt, recreation leader, and Bettye Anne Pfau, news reporter. Mrs. Peter Frech is adviser, assisted by Nancy Young.

The first two meetings of the club were held at the home of Anna Lou Young because Anna Lou was confined to her home after a prolonged illness. Mrs. Frech acted as hostess at the first meeting, Bettye Anne Pfau at the second.

The girls made plans to fabric paint T-shirts and to take a weekend trip sometime this summer.

Last week the club cleaned the Honey Creek Grange hall for its health project of the year.

★

The Peppy Pals will have a swimming party at Liberty park in place of their next meeting.

At the last meeting at the home of Ronnie Evans, the group discussed the projects they would work on this year. Refreshments were served after the social program.

Graham bread was named after Sylvester Graham, an American lecturer on food reform who recommended bread made of unbolted wheat flour.

Air Activity Lags In Ohio

BOWLING GREEN — (INS) — Blame for the lag in construction of Ohio municipal airports was placed directly on the state today.

Earl Heist, regional chief of the airport branch of the civil aeronautics administration, said that Ohio had only three of 80 airport projects currently approved for federal aid in an eight-state region.

The low number was attributed to the failure of the state to assume any of the financial burden through state grants.

Michigan and Minnesota, Heist told the closing session of the Ohio Aviation clinic, chip in with state funds to help in the construction of airports. As a result they have 20 approved projects each, or half the eight state total.

TRAINING CONDEMNED

Total Includes 75 Disabled Men

A total of 5,000 Mansfield area World War II veterans are participating in the educational and on-the-job training benefits administered by the Veterans Administration under the GI bill, G. D. Weidemaier, Mansfield VA officer, announced today.

The Mansfield 10-county area includes Richland, Ashland, Coshocton, Holmes, Morrow, Marion, Crawford, Wyandotte, Huron and Knox counties.

"Included in the Mansfield area are 1,821 veterans enrolled in educational institutions, 2,697 taking on-the-job training, 75 disabled veterans in school, and 407 disabled veterans training on-the-job," Weidemaier said.

"The May monthly summary of VA activities in the 38-county region, under the Cleveland regional office, reveals that 63,943 World War II veterans in northern Ohio are participating in the educational and job training programs administered by the VA," he said.

Included are 43,866 veterans enrolled in educational institutions, 10,070 taking job training, 2,895 disabled veterans in school, and 4,566 disabled veterans training on the job.

Subsistence payments to these veterans amounted to $3,814,530 in May and payments to educational institutions for tuition and supplies totaled $1,923,231.

Fails to Holler; Costs $6,500

COLUMBUS —(AP)— A game of golf cost Morton J. Heldman of Cincinnati $6,500, all because he didn't yell "Fore."

The ball driven by Heldman hit his caddy, 12-year-old Teddy Gardner, in the head from a distance of 15 feet.

A common pleas court jury awarded the caddy $10,000 damages but the trial judge considered this excessive and reduced the amount to $6,500.

Piles Are Never "Mild"

DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves: instead, they are likely, if neglected to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as: indigestion, billiousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its rundown tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

Will GOP Lightning Strike One of These 7 Next Week?

GOVERNOR THOMAS E. DEWEY

(AP Newsfeatures)

IF NEW YORK'S Governor Dewey is chosen Republican standard-bearer, it will be the first time his party has renominated a man defeated in a presidential contest.

In the 1944 race with President Roosevelt, Dewey rolled up 22,006,278 popular votes to come within 3,596,227 of the fourth-term winner.

Dewey gained fame in the '30s as racket-busting district attorney in New York City. . . . He became a prominent contender in the 1940 convention which nominated Wendell Willkie . . . In 1942 he was the first Republican to be elected governor of New York in two decades.

He was born 46 years ago in Owosso, Mich., the son of a weekly newspaper publisher. . . . Attended University of Michigan.

HAROLD E. STASSEN

IF 41-YEAR-OLD Harold E. Stassen gets the Republican presidential nomination and wins the election this year, he will be the youngest man ever to become President. (Theodore Roosevelt, at 42, was the youngest.)

Stassen was a county attorney at 23, became governor of Minnesota at 31 and keynote speaker for the 1940 Republican national convention at 33. . . . Worked his way through university as a grocery clerk, pan greaser in a bakery, and sleeping car conductor.

Labor peace law set up under his governorship became model for other states. . . . Came out early for international action to secure world peace . . . Big, agile and energetic campaigner who invites questions from his listeners and stops at every crossroads.

SENATOR ROBERT A. TAFT

SEN. ROBERT A. TAFT, the 58-year-old lawyer, son of President and Chief Justice Taft, calls himself a "conservative liberal" . . . He's a vigorous, candid campaigner, but is rated short on glamor.

Legislative diligence won him Senate Republican leadership on domestic matters . . . Taft-Hartley Labor act his most important measure . . . Also sponsor of a public housing bill and a "compromise" measure providing federal aid for health and education.

Member of Senate since January, 1939 . . . Choice of Ohio Republicans for presidential nomination in 1936 and 1940. . . . Was member of Ohio legislature for several years and active in politics of home town, Cincinnati . . . Top man in his class at Yale and the Harvard law school.

GENERAL DOUGLAS MacARTHUR

OLDEST OF THE Republican presidential candidates is Gen. Douglas MacArthur who will be 69 next Jan. 26. MacArthur is what the politicos call a "receptive" candidate.

Prior to his service as Supreme Commander in the Pacific, he had a brilliant military record. Received 18 citations for gallantry and leadership ability as a young general in World War I.

Top man in his class of 93 members at West Point . . . Became Army chief of staff at 50, youngest to hold that post. . . . Proud that under his regime in Japan, Communists have shown comparatively little political strength.

Tall, distinguished-looking and a fastidious dresser. Has a flair for dramatic phrase-making, such as his statement on leaving the Philippines in 1942: "I will Return."

SENATOR ARTHUR VANDENBERG

MICHIGAN'S 64-YEAR-OLD Sen. Vandenberg is considered a good bet for the presidential nomination if leading active candidates are dead-locked.

Presiding officer of Senate and Republican leader on questions of foreign policy . . . A one-time isolationist who has become a prominent advocate of international action for world peace . . . Helped set up the United National organization.

Came to the Senate as "young, progressive Republican" in 1928. . . . Supported some New Deal measures, fought others . . . Describes himself as "a fundamentalist on our form of government, a liberal on social legislation, and above all a realist."

Started working at 9. Became editor of a Grand Rapids newspaper at 22.

Gov. Earl Warren

CALIFORNIA'S GOVERNOR Earl Warren, receptive candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, has been a potent vote-getter in his state. In 1946, he was re-elected governor as the nominee of both Republican and Democratic parties.

A dark-horse presidential prospect in 1944, Warren was keynote speaker at the convention which nominated Dewey.

Warren is 57, husky, good looking, and smiles easily. He has fought for increase in state old-age pension and for a compulsory health insurance system.

Born in Los Angeles, son of a railroad worker who was an ardent unionist . . . Was newsboy, railroad call boy, and farm hand . . . Studied law and like Gov. Dewey, he became a prosecuting attorney.

House Speaker Joseph Martin

JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Jr., is an amiable Scotch-Irishman who has been politicking for 37 years—the last 24 in Congress. Speaker Martin is not an active candidate but he is a possible compromise choice if leading contenders are deadlocked.

Martin will preside over the Republican convention for the third consecutive time . . . He's an expert at harmonizing factions.

Led Republican minority in House for several years before becoming speaker . . . Served in Massachusetts legislature with Calvin Coolidge. . . . Bachelor, 63, doesn't smoke, drink, or play golf. . . . Likes walking and watching baseball games.

At 18 he became a newspaper reporter and at 24 was publisher in North Attleboro, Mass., his home town.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

New Stamp Will Honor Progress of U. S. Women

A new commemorative stamp will be issued at Seneca Falls, N. Y., on July 19, Curtis Ford, acting postmaster, announced today. The new three-cent stamp wil commemorate 100 years of progress of American women.

The central design consists of three portraits of Elizabeth Stanton, Carrie C. Catt, and Lucretia Mott.

Below the central design are the words "100 years of progress of women, 1848 to 1948" in dark modified Roman lettering on a light ribbon. At each end of the ribbon the denomination is printed in white Gothic lettering.

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations should send no more than 10 self-addressed envelopes to the postmaster at Seneca Falls, N. Y. No more than 10 envelopes may be sent. A postal note or money order remittance should be enclosed to cover the cost of the stamps.

The Mansfield Post Office expects to receive its supply of the stamps a week or 10 days after they are issued.

Conference Deadlock Foreseen on Long-Range Farm Bill

Aiken Wins Senate Vote On Measure

House Favors Stop-Gap Law

WASHINGTON — (NS) — The Senate today sent a long-range farm bill into a conference with House members reportedly adamant for their stop-gap support measure.

The senate passed the measure, 79 to 3, after Sen. Aiken (R.-Vt.) fought off all major amendments except one giving tobacco support at 90 per cent of parity.

Senators opposing the long-range bill, which revises the whole parity price support system, predicted that House conferees will refuse flatly to accept it and will insist on their stop-gap measure extending existing legislation, including the wartime Steagall act, for 18 months.

The Senate's bill, largely written by Aiken, would substitute a "10-year-moving average" for the old 1910-1914 prices on which "parity" — the relationship between what the farmer sells and what he buys — is computed.

It also would provide a sliding scale of support ratios — low when crops are large, and high when they are small — aimed at stabilizing the average farm income from year to year.

Informed sources said that if the House stands pat on its stop-gap bill, the Senate conferees may be forced to accept it. It appears improbable that the two conference groups could find a way to dovetail their two measures.

The House bill would provide larger support prices next year than the long-range bill.

25-Year Club Plans Outing

The Mansfield Tire and Rubber company's 25-Year club will hold a fish fry and picnic tomorrow at A. J. Burkhart's El Rancho Delago at Charles Mill lake.

About 60 members of the club are expected to arrive at 3:30 p. m. to fish and participate in other sports. The fish dinner will be served at 5 p. m.

George Bell, president of the club, heads the committee in charge of the event.

Police Report Two Burglary Attempts

Police today reported evidence that burglars attempted to enter two Mansfield business places last night.

Officers said the rear door of a tavern at 14 West Sixth street was tampered with, and a small door at the side of the Gardner garage on Park avenue west was found open at 2 a. m. today. As they entered the garage, police said they heard a loud noise as if someone had slammed a door hurriedly in fleeing. Nothing was missing at either establishment.

Get 7 Watermelons

A thief who broke into a freight car made sure last night he'd have his fill of watermelon.

Police said a car, on a Baltimore and Ohio siding, was found burglarized at 11:25 p. m. yesterday. Seven watermelons were missing.

Council Acts To Put Time Question on November Ballot

A certified copy of a proposed daylight saving time ordinance was delivered to City Auditor Paul L. Kelley today as the first legal step toward having the time question put on the November ballot.

Meanwhile, referendum petitions are being circulated by Councilman Harry Hollingsworth, Thomas Wright and Clifford Knarr.

Hollingsworth, who sponsored the two attempts to put Mansfield on fast time this summer, said he would give petitions to the other six councilmen at the next regular meeting.

"When the issue was being discussed," he explained, "all the members said they favored having it settled by the people, so we are going to ask them to circulate the petitions and make the action official.

The petitions must contain the names of 10 per cent of the registered voters of the city.

Fast time, which was approved by a 5 to 4 vote of council last week, was declared void by City Solicitor C. J. Kalbfleisch early this week because the bill, containing an emergency clause, was not passed by the necessary two-thirds majority.

Stocks of Two Firms Decline As Result of Plane Crash

NEW YORK—(AP)—Stocks of two companies involved in yesterday's plane tragedy declined in today's market.

United Airlines, operators of the DC-6 which crashed and killed 43 persons, dropped around a point. Douglas Aircraft, makers of the DC-6 plane, opened 1¼ lower but later recovered most of the loss.

Other air transportation stocks tended downward, including Eastern Airlines, Transcontinental & Western and American Airlines.

Railroad issues lost a little of the steam which carried many to new highs for the year or longer on Thursday. Fractional advances were posted for Pennsylvania railroad, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway and Baltimore & Ohio.

Contract Let For Schools In Ashland

Expansion of Two Buildings Planned

ASHLAND — Construction contracts amounting to $360,555.84 for the improvement and expansion of two elementary school buildings were awarded in a special meeting of the Ashland board of education this week.

The De Hamel Construction company of Cleveland was low bidder for the general contract with $267,100. Other contracts awarded were Columbus Heating and Ventilating company, $43,901.84; T. O. Murphy of Oberlin, plumbing, $34,473, and Buckman Electrical Construction company of Mansfield $15,-081.

The two buildings to be expanded are the Osborn building on Wooster avenue and the Lincoln school on Troy avenue. The expansion was proposed by the board after a survey by the Bureau of Educational Research of Ohio State university. It is anticipated the building program will adequately care for the needs immediately ahead.

The voters in the Ashland City School district last October approved a bond issue of $400,000 for additions to the two schools. Equipment and architect's fees will bring the total cost of the project to just under the $400,000 figure.

At Osborn, the new construction will provide eleven new classrooms, gymnasium, shower, locker and toilet facilities, kitchen and lunchroom, making a nineteen classroom building in addition to auditorium, gymnasium and lunchroom.

The Lincoln school will have two new classrooms, a store room off the auditorium, two additional toilets and a restroom.

The DeHamel Construction company announced they will break ground July 1.

Tooth Found By Willard Man Said To Be 25,000 Years Old

WILLARD — Richard L. Morgan, curator of archaeology, Ohio State museum, reports that the large tooth found on the Ferl L. Buckingham farm near Willard, is from some prehistoric elephant or mastadon which roamed Ohio about the time of the ice age.

A copy of Morgan's letter to Buckingham follows:

"Edward Schreiner came into the museum yesterday and brought the specimen which you plowed up on your property. The object is a tooth of a prehistoric elephant or mastadon, an animal which lived in Ohio during the Pleistocene Period, or Ice Age, some 25,000 years ago.

"The animal had four such teeth which were used in grinding vegetation. At Schreiner's suggestion, I had my laboratory assistant treat the tooth with lacquer to preserve it and to keep it from falling to pieces.

"I do not know what disposition you wish to make of the tooth, but I suggest that you consider giving it to the Ohio State university Geological museum if you do not care to keep it. Our museum is primarily devoted to archaeological and historical specimens and we do not have a space to handle geological material. Naturally, they would like to know exactly where you found it and the conditions under which it was found.

"I will take good care of the tooth and keep it here until I hear what you wish done with it."

Buckingham has requested that the tooth be returned to him and plans to keep it for a while before turning it over for an historical collection. He found it in clay soil where fires had burned off most of the muck soil.

Seek Longer War Truce

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(U.P.)—The United States and Great Britain and some other nations, are planning to propose to the United Nations security council that the 28-day truce in Palestine be extended another month, it was reported today.

The proposal probably will be made a few days before the present truce expires July 9, it was said.

Following that extension, it was understood they will press for still more time, until a permanent settlement between the Jews and Arabs is reached.

Many diplomats, including some Jews and some Arabs, were known to believe that the present cease-fire agreement has brought an end to the Holy Land war.

If fighting resumes at all, they believe it will be on a small scale, chiefly of the guerrilla type involving Arab and Jewish extremists.

Credit Group Closes Season

The North Central Ohio division of the National Association of Credit Men announced today discontinuance for the summer of its monthly meetings. Activities will be resumed in September.

Hire Mansfielder For Lucas School

LUCAS — Teaching staff of the Lucas school is virtually complete with the signing, this week, of three new teachers and tentative employment of a fourth, according to Emery Culler, clerk of the board of education.

Miss Lenore Welch of Loudonville will take the place of William Ruby of Ashland, language teacher.

Only remaining vacancy is that of commercial teacher.

Cyclists Ride To Malabar

Author-Farmer Louis Bromfield served as host to 21 members of the YMCA Century Cycle club yesterday at Malabar farm.

The Cycle club added 35 miles toward its 100-mile goal on members' trips to points of interest in the area.

Recently the club visited the Ohio State reformatory.

The members are looking forward to next Tuesday's trip to Charles Mill lake where they will fish from two landing barges, loaned to them for the day.

450 Scouts Vie For Honors

More than 450 Johnny Appleseed area Boy Scouts pitched their tents and built their campfires yesterday as the annual camporal got under way at Camp Avery Hand.

Last night the boys gathered around the campfires and filled the air with songs and stories.

Contests between the Scout patrols started today to determine the area championships. This evenings activities will be climaxed with a dress parade which will be followed by the area court of honor.

The court of honor will be held around a council camp fire and awards of Eagle, Life and Star ranks will be presented to the Scouts who have made advancements in the past three months.

Canton Lady Loses 36 Lbs. Says Rennel Is Fine

Mrs M. Elder, 1419 5th St. NE, Canton, Ohio writes us, "I am 38 years of age and when I started taking Rennel Concentrate I weighed 174 lbs. Now I weigh 138 and my dress size has changed from 20½ to 16. I like Rennel for reducing for it does not upset my stomach as other preparations have."

Hundreds of others have obtained similar relief from the social and physical discomfort of being overweight. Rennel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple. Just go to your druggist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel—no starvation diet—no printed diet list to buy—no vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry. Don't be switched to another product. Insist on and obtain genuine Rennel.

Devastation Marks Plane Crash Site

Craft Shattered, Bodies Scattered

By FRANKLIN LANE
(City Editor of the Ashland, Pa. News)

ASHLAND, Pa.—(U.P.)—The site of the United Air Lines plane crash near Wilberton was a scene of devastation and death. When I left at 3:15 p. m. Thursday workmen had recovered 14 bodies scattered about the shattered plane.

The Ashland Fire company was trying to cool off the wrecked cabin of the plane so they could get in for the rest of the bodies.

The plane had crashed into a transformer station about 20 feet high and it looked just as if a brush fire had burned over an area about 100 yards wide by 200 feet long.

I talked to a fellow who was in the Wilberton fire company, about a half mile away when the crash happened about 2 p. m. He was John Broda of Wilberton.

Broda told me that the plane came in very low through the valley. There is a big "slush dam" in the area, where refuse is dumped from a coal breaker, and it looked to Broda like the plane was trying to land there.

But then, suddenly, it shot up the hill. He lost sight of it. It turned suddenly and the next thing he heard was an explosion. He saw flames shooting from the plane.

Parts flew as far as 200 yards up the hill and the grass caught fire.

When I went in there on the log road, I saw an arm, apparently that of a man. I stood beside two workmen who lifted up the body of a woman, which had been burned or torn off at the waist. Both of her arms were torn off.

Up the hill I could see three other torsos, all thrown at least 50 feet apart. There wasn't a piece of plane left that would be bigger than an automobile in size.

The plane, as it fell, missed a coal breaker of the Hazelbrook Coal company by about 100 yards. There are about 90 men employed there.

There was no doubt that all aboard are dead.

Guards Sent To Palestine

Request Made By Bernadotte

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. —(INS)— UN Secretary General Trygve Lie acceded to Count Folke Bernadotte's request and ordered fifty Lake Success security guards to proceed to Palestine as true control aides.

Lie acted after sounding out Mayor William O'wDyer of New York City for a volunteer body from the city police. The mayor indicated that while willing to cooperate he is not empowered to take such a step.

The fifty security guards, almost all of them Americans, will leave in a specially chartered plane for Cairo on Saturday. They will continue to wear their blue UN uniforms and accept instructions from Bernadotte in the Holy Land.

The mediator is to decide whether the guard detail is to be armed and the type of weapons to be carried.

Bernadotte indicated that the main task of the UN guards will be to supervise traffic on the supply route between Tel-Aviv and Jerusalem.

A week ago, Frank Bagley, chief security officer at Lake Success, was flown to Palestine to assume similar duties under Bernadotte.

The guard unit will be under the command of John Cosgrove, second in command of UN security units. Their departure will reduce the Lake Success guards to 16 men but replacements are being enlisted.

Gov. Herbert Named Head Of GOP Economics Group

PHILADELPHIA — Ohio's governor, Thomas J. Herbert, heads the economics and small business subcommittee of the Republican campaign platform committee.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge jr., of Massachusetts, temporary chairman of the platform committee, named Herbert yesterday as one of several chairmen to draft the policy statement.

Chief Justice George W. Maxey of Pennsylvania was named to head the controversial civil rights subcommittee. Lodge himself will head the foreign affairs group.

Chairmen of other committees named by Lodge follow:

Agriculture—Ancher Nelson of Minnesota.

General government affairs — Dean C. Davis of Vermont.

Labor and social welfare—Miss Mary Donlon of New York.

Public works, natural resources and western affairs — Gordon Richmond of California.

Federal-state taxation—Walter E. Edge of New Jersey.

Veterans affairs—Wes Roberts of Kansas.

Lodge said the subcommittees would conduct hearings today and report back to the full committee Saturday. He said they hoped to get down to actually writing a 1,500-word platform on Sunday and that it would be ready for the full committee by Monday night.

Uranium Search Brings New Boom In Colorado Gold Area

DOVE CREEK, Colo. —(AP)— Prospectors are combing the mountains of southwestern Colorado again. It's uranium they're looking for now, not gold.

The prospecting boom for the raw material of the atom bomb centers around this mountain town whose name is symbolic of peace.

In the '80's, it was the grizzled sourdough who plodded over the hills and canyons with his pick, pan and provisions on a burro.

The jeep and truck have replaced the burro, and modern scientific instruments the pick and pan. Otherwise, the present day prospector operates much like his predecessor.

It's difficult to get any definite information as to the overall results. The atomic energy commission is close-mouthed about its activities. However, it is well-known here that uranium prospecting and mining in the slick rock region about 20 miles north of here is reaching boom proportions.

The uranium is contained almost exclusively in the mineral "carnotite" and in the form of uranium oxide.

Carnotite looks like lumps of yellow clay. It is found in what geologists call the Morrison formation which outcrops on the surface.

F. A. Sitton, mayor of Dove Creek, owns 200 uranium mining claims. During the war, he shipped as much as 100 tons of ore daily.

The current boom, he says, may put the "old days" to shame.

"In employment alone, this may be the greatest thing that ever happened here," he says. "We figure one man will be needed to mine each ton of ore."

Bus Service Wins Praise Of Survey

Bad Paving, Traffic Congestion Rapped

City bus route coverage in Mansfield is much better than in most cities of this size, requiring shorter walks to board buses, a survey of Mansfield Rapid Transit service shows.

Population per mile of bus lines in Mansfield is 1,738, or 21 6 per cent less than the average for all cities with bus service.

The bus survey, made by Ebasco Services, Inc., shows that Mansfield bus lines parallel each other at a quarter of a mile or less in a number of places. Normally, it is uneconomical for lines outside business districts to parallel each other at less than one-half mile, the report said.

Lack of paving on many streets and a large number of railroad crossings limit the streets over which buses can be operated in Mansfield, the survey showed

URGE MORE REGULATION

The survey makers recommended better regulation of parking in the downtown area to ease the jam on bus routes and suggested that the arrival times of buses at Fourth and Main streets be staggered to relieve congestion.

Check of the average passenger load on buses showed that the lightest hour between 8 30 a m, and 2 p. m, is the 10-to-11 a m. period.

The Glessner - Reformatory route hauls more passengers than any of the other city lines. The line serves a big residential area in the southwest section of the city and major industrial plants in the northeast section. The Hedges - Fairground route showed the lightest passenger business during the middle of the day when the figures were compiled.

Passenger loads during the off-peak part of the day don't justify more than 20-minute service, the report said. Buses now operate at 20-minute intervals during the day and every half hour at night.

NO FOOD IN 9 YEARS — From Chungking, China, comes the strange story of this 19-year-old girl, Yang Mei, who hasn't eaten for nine years. Recently she was under medical supervision for 19 days during which she took only occasional sips of water. The girl told doctors she suffered severe gastric pains nine years ago and hasn't eaten since. She weighs 85 pounds and appears to be normal.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE SIX MANSFIELD, OHIO, FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1948

One congressman assures, "I am only thinking of the people"—many of whom, of course, are voters.

Huey Long's brother, now governor of Louisiana, says he'll revive the battle cry, "Every man a king"—and just in time, for the supply of kings has been dwindling fast.

Alert students of history are questioning assertions that we are now enduring either the "worst Congress" or the "worst President"—as pre-election estimates are seldom dependable.

Thus Endeth Anti-Gambling Fiasco

IN THE ABSENCE of either grand jury investigation or intervention by Governor Herbert, Mansfield's return to "wide open" commercialized gambling seems to be nearing the end of the story, insofar as providing factual information is concerned—which is a recognized duty of a community's newspaper.

Prosecuting Attorney Theodore Lutz has explained that it is not a part of his duties to investigate gambling operations in the city or county—except in connection with a grand jury investigation.

Mayor Roy W. Vaughn has announced a "hands off" policy.

Chief of Police Jesse Schwab adopts the "no comment" formula when questioned as to his changed attitude toward those forms of gambling which violate Ohio statutes and municipal ordinances.

It is stated as a consistent policy of Governor Herbert that he has "urged local officials to maintain the utmost vigilance so that no gambling is permitted in their community."

Vigilance—neither "utmost" nor mild—is being maintained in Mansfield—and it may be wondered to what extent Governor Herbert has urged local officials to act . . . and if this has not yet been done whether or not it will be done—now that the information has been made available.

Where Boys Learn By Doing

ONE of the valuable contributions of the American Legion to the fostering of Americanism is the Boys State, an annual event which is now nearing its close at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware.

Mansfield and Richland county are well represented at Boys State by high school juniors who are privileged to participate in the process of setting up a government, electing officers, determining policies and carrying through the functions of self-government during a 10-day period.

This is an enlightening experience which should tend to increase the interest of all of the boys in the actual conduct of public business in their own communities, state and nation.

It would be a fine thing if the Boys State idea could be expanded to the point of opening the way for all boys of high school age to enjoy similar experience before graduation.

Yes, Father Is To Have His 'Day'

ON THE THIRD Sunday of June it is customary for the family to pay tribute to father by presenting him with a necktie, a pipe or some other token of esteem. Father always appreciates this gesture. In fact, he is probably a little bit surprised.

There is usually plenty to remind the family that Father's day is coming. Indeed, some unkind people have charged that the day is largely a commercialization of sentiment. But fathers don't mind that. They know that business is what makes it possible to pay for the baby shoes and the new hats. What surprises them is that the family takes the whole affair seriously enough to actually bother with getting a present.

Fathers are probably the most sentimental old duffers you'll find anywhere. They try to cover it up, usually, by being gruff or hearty or awfully busy with something else. But most youngsters and even a few wives know that the so-called head-of-the-house can be pretty easily "put on." Dad knows it, too, and gets a kick out of it.

It's probably unnecessary to devote a whole day to fathers. Fifteen minutes would really be enough. They have a lot of fun the year around—despite their scowls and growls—just being dads.

Dairy Lobbyists Battling To Last

CONGRESSIONAL jockeying of the bill to remove discriminatory federal taxes on oleomargarine serves as a glaring example of how majority wishes can be overruled by a determined minority acting in behalf of shrewd lobbyists for some special interest.

Acting after assurance of strong public favor, the House voted weeks ago for repeal of oleo taxes, 260 to 106. The Senate finance committee followed suit, unanimously Republican policy leader Senator Taft also favors repeal, and this is undoubtedly the attitude of a majority of his colleagues, but opponents of the measure have adopted delaying tactics which, it now appears, will succeed in preventing the bill being brought to a vote in the Senate before adjournment.

It is being pointed out that passage of the overwhelmingly popular margarine tax repeal bill would be a distinct campaign asset, as well as an act of simple justice to the consuming public—and there will be hope, until the last minute, that some way will be found to circumvent minority efforts to throw it in the discard.

Real estate interests apparently have a haunting fear that the nation might eventually be overhoused—not taking into account, perhaps, the quick replacement that some of the present jerry-built construction will require.

One observer comments: "The first lie detector was made from the rib of a man and no improvement has ever been made on the original machine."

Claude Callan complains: "People who get up early are a nuisance. They disturb those who disturbed them by getting to bed so late."

The fact that this is honest-to-goodness inflation is confirmed by the fact that "it's on the up and up."

Parity Formula For Labor Being Sought

ONE of the most durable measures of farm prosperity is the parity formula. Briefly stated, it is a statistical ratio between what the farmer pays for the things he buys and what he gets for the things he raises.

Parity, or 100 per cent, is reached when relative prices are equal to the average of the five years before the first World War. It is assumed that those years were good ones for the farmer and everyone concerned. Despite some defects and the need for periodical revision, it has been one of the most successful of statistical formulas.

The General Motors formula for settling its latest dispute with the automobile union is clearly an attempt to create a parity formula for labor. The question will be whether the two statistical situations are really comparable.

The General Motors employes get a sort of guarantee that their standard of living will be kept at the 1940 level. If the cost of living goes up, wages will increase by a corresponding percentage. Should it go down, wages will be reduced, but not below a level of $1.56 during the next two years.

Provision is made for increasing efficiency in the industry. It is assumed that efficiency in national production will go up 2 per cent a year and that a corresponding wage increase of 3 cents an hour will be added this year and next.

* * *

Has Been Tried Before.

MANY observers have greeted the whole scheme with raised eyebrows. They say that the plan offers a guarantee that since wages are the most important element in determining prices, the whole system, if applied generally, would only provide for indefinite inflation That, however, remains to be seen

The idea is not new. Sliding-scale wages were tried almost a century ago in England. At that time, the prices of foodstuffs, principally grain, were used to determine increases in wages. In fact, over the years the cost of living has always been a factor in labor disputes.

It is true that the General Motors formula makes it exceedingly improbable that wages will go down during the period of the contract. It is always difficult to get the rate of wages down in unionized business lines.

When the business cycle turns down, wages in non-unionized lines decline, but in unionized lines unemployment goes up.

In many foreign countries the answer to the rigidity of nominal wages is a reduction in money values. This brings about higher prices without raising nominal wages.

The General Motors agreement points to a crying need in the department of labor. The Bureau of Labor Statistics has a passable but far from perfect measurement of the cost of living But it has no general measurement of national labor productivity. There have been numerous meetings of statisticians to devise such a measure, but not much has been accomplished.

Now, since the G M plan gives more pay for increased productive efficiency, there is need for a measure of that factor. The figures of 2 per cent and 3 cents an hour are a very general and tentative yardstick. In some lines efficiency has increased 2 per cent or more. In a few others, it has declined. It is very difficult to tell to what extent, if any at all, has increased since 1941 in the auto industry.

A good deal of figuring needs to be done before labor parity can be favorably compared with farm parity.

Washington Calling

Lost In Frantic Rush

By MARQUIS CHILDS

IN THE frantic final rush of Congress so much patient effort is being swept aside. The furious drive to get away has brushed down hopes and plans and aspirations as though they had been matchsticks before a flood.

What gives added drama to this heedless cyclone is that the effort and the plans are in no small part those of Sen. Robert A. Taft, one of the three most conspicuous contenders for the Republican presidential nomination.

Aid to education, housing, health—these programs he has worked for long and hard.

Senator Taft comes as near to being a responsible conservative as our political system produces. Believing that government must provide a minimum of intervention to insure against slum conditions and to help provide equality of opportunity, Taft is far from being a "public be damned" tory.

This being the case, and he has demonstrated it over and over again, it is the more difficult to understand the paradox of his position. Here is the acknowledged leader of the Republican majority in the Senate powerless to get his way.

Take aid to education as an example. The bill that passed the Senate under Taft's careful shepherding provides $3 0,000,000 a year to try to equalize the unbalance of educational opportunity, particularly in favor of the low-income states. It has wide popular backing.

Yet the little band of Republicans who rule the House have bottled it up. And what makes this even harder to understand is the fact that Taft's campaign manager, Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, is a member of the little band on the rules committee that dictates to the House. Brown has already gone to Philadelphia where he is proclaiming the certainty of Taft's nomination.

* * *

Seeking An Explanation.

THE closeness of this relationship has raised suspicions of many who otherwise would be inclined to admire the tough fight Taft has made. So far as the record shows, Brown has never raised his voice for the measures presumably dear to Taft's heart.

It takes little imagination to see how much stronger Taft's position would be today if he had been able to get his party in the House to go along with his program. He would go to Philadelphia with an impressive record of achievement.

An easy alibi for Taft is the presidential ambition of Speaker Joseph W. Martin jr., of Massachusetts. It is being said on Capitol Hill that Martin helped to block education and health, first, because he wanted to show his independence to Taft and, second, because he wanted to demonstrate his opposition to measures considered "socialistic" by the wealthy backers who would like to put Martin over on the convention.

But that alibi is almost too easy. Important Republicans, including those governors who believe the party must look forward and not backward, will hardly accept it, nor will the independent voter.

The senator from Ohio knows more about government than probably any man who has occupied the White House since Woodrow Wilson. And it is possible that his knowledge is more detailed and more practical than that of Wilson, the schoolmaster.

Blunt often to the point of seeming rudeness and indifference, Taft never indulges in the kind of smooth-flowing talk that has won popular support for Harold Stassen.

Yes, Dads Are 'People'

By ELSIE ROBINSON

NO don't give him a necktie this year, or a wallet

You've given him neckties and wallets on Father's Day ever since the baby cut his first tooth. Give him something that will mean himself on this day, something that will show how you really love him and how grateful you are for all his toil and sacrifice . . . something personal.

How long is it since you took time off to put your arm around him and tell him what a grand guy he is? How long since you thought of him as a man and not just as a domestic provider? How long since you took a good look at him and saw how the wrinkles are gathering and the thick hair is thinning and growing gray?

Mothers—mothers are different. It's easy to remember Mother and give her a surprise kiss or little gift. But we're apt to take dads for granted.

We never stop to think of the years and the dreams Dad sacrificed or the fun he might have had if he'd never started a family . . . of the risks he has run and the worries he has undergone wondering if he'll make next month's rent.

We never stop to remember that dads are people. Remember it now.

Does he like fishing? Then how about a swell lot of tackle and a stag fishing party just for him and his old cronies?

Does he play poker? How about a surprise party with never a skirt in sight and no crabbing about ashes on the rug next day?

Maybe he has always wanted a good atlas. Or a super-duper pipe with his pet tobacco Or a new suit—how long since he had one?

Something from yourself to himself. Doesn't have to be expensive or rare. Just so long as you make him remember for one day that he's near and dear to you all the rest of the year. Something that will make him remember again that he is a person . . . an important person.

'Twouldn't take you five minutes to say it—

But the day will come when you'd give your heart to have said it—and can't.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Political Thought Stimulated By Stassen

By DREW PEARSON

Editor's Note: The character and prospects of Harold Stassen are analyzed by Drew Pearson today in his series of columns on GOP candidates.)

* * *

WASHINGTON—Whether Harold Stassen wins or not—and he probably won't—he has done a great service to the Republican party.

When other candidates were being coy, and while certain leaders were saying they did not want to be president, the refreshing Mr. Stassen announced that he was one who wanted to be president and proceeded to go out and hustle for it.

Furthermore, he made other candidates hustle. Result was more scrutiny of candidates, more public thinking about the Republican nomination than in any other recent presidential year.

For this alone, the American people owe Mr. Stassen a large vote of thanks.

The Stassen campaign today is dragging. His campaign chest, once amply supplied, is now reported to be $100,000 in the red. Many of the big-money boys, once enthusiastic over Stassen, cooled off after his Oregon debate. It was not that they disagreed with Stassen, but rather that they want to be on the winning bandwagon and they figured Stassen wouldn't win.

* * *

Crucial Battle.

HISTORY may show the Dewey debate was the turning point in the race to decide who will be the next president of the United States.

Stassen, in challenging Dewey, figured he was playing safe. The advantage was against Dewey. Not only did it appear more popular at that time to outlaw communism, but Stassen was accustomed to, rough-and-tumble debate. After all his speeches he had invited questions from the audience. He had had a lot of practice. In his grain-speculation charges against Ed Pauley, he had outtalked both Pauley and his defending senators. Holding press conferences was Stassen's forte

Knowing this some of Dewey's friends advised him not to accept the Stassen challenge. The youthful Minnesota governor, Paul Lockwood warned Dewey, was baiting a political trap.

"If I am going to be defeated," replied the usually cautious Mr. Dewey "I know of no better issue to be defeated on. We cannot have thought-control in the United States."

The debate which followed sent Dewey's battered stock soaring. It may have decided who will be the next President of the United States.

* * *

Stassen "Too Liberal."

THREE other factors are working against Stassen:

1. His youth. He is 41 and many people think he can afford to be aged in the wood a bit.

2. The party bosses. They don't want a man they cannot control, would much prefer a party hack like Bricker of Ohio, or good-natured Speaker Joe Martin

3. Stassen's liberal background. Stassen's onetime liberalism now appears to be diluted with growing gobs of conservatism. Some suspect the onetime crusading governor of Minnesota of trying to carry water on both shoulders, in order to keep happy both his labor following and the large group of businessmen who have oiled his political machine.

At any rate, Stassen, who once opposed the Taft-Hartley Labor Act, who favored strong anti-trust prosecution, and urged heavy taxes on high profits, has now pulled in his horns on many of these issues.

To his credit it should be noted that he has had the courage to take a stand on almost everything—even the dynamite-laden question of whether the U. S. ambassador to the Vatican should be recalled and whether U. S. taxpayers' money should be used for buses to parochial schools. As a result, a storm of criticism has poured on his head from his own church (Baptist) and other Protestant groups.

* * *

Immigrant Grandparents.

STASSEN has a unique American background and, despite his youthful years, a wealth of diversified experience.

Like Wendell Willkie, his grandparents were immigrants; two from Germany, one from Norway, one from Czechoslovakia. To get his education, Stassen worked on a farm, as a grocer's clerk, in a bake shop, and spent three summers as a Pullman conductor on the Milwaukee railroad.

As a young Minnesota lawyer, Stassen was so forthright that in his first race for governor he defeated both the Farmer-Labor candidate and the Old Guard Republican machine. The AFL and CIO generally supported him.

It was Senator Joe Ball, a St. Paul newsman whom Stassen appointed to the Senate, who later reciprocated by persuading the White House to appoint Stassen as a U. S. delegate to the first United Nations conference in San Francisco. There, Stassen, a returned naval hero, did a good job. Given the thankless chore of conferring with the peace organizations desiring to "consult" with the U. S. delegation, Stassen not only kept them reasonably happy but made political friends for the future.

More important, he proved himself a better statesman than Vandenberg by battling against the Veto. Van has received the major credit for constructing the UN Charter, but it was the youthful Minnesotan who foresaw the veto reefs ahead.

Should Stassen win out in his ambition to enter the White House, foreign policy would be in the hands of a man who had already conferred with Stalin, Molotov, Attlee and other world leaders. The young man from Minnesota has given himself as much preparation as possible for the big job to which he aspires.

Unquestionably he would be a much better president than various of his Republican stablemates, but certain of the party bosses would almost cut off their left arm before they would let him get the nomination. They would take him for vice president with great pleasure, however. And that, probably, is where Stassen will end up.

Assignment: America

Gleaned From Records

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WASHINGTON — One of the usual bits of preparedness for the average correspondent planning to cover a national political convention involves thumbing through the pages of history for a quick look at the records of past conclaves.

It is a sort of depressing task and leaves you wondering just how much we've progressed, politically speaking, during the past century and a half—if at all.

Of course, it may well be that even historians occasionally suffer from a twinge of nostalgic blindness, so perhaps the "good old days" have been chronicled with slightly too kind a touch.

In any case, this business of holding national party shindigs to build political platforms and nominate presidential candidates has certainly done some growing and changing since its beginning.

Historically speaking, the first such convention was a small, secret, select and highly snobbish little session held in New York some 140 years ago by the Whigs They closed their doors to the press and the general public, didn't even announce who was present at the parley—other than to say they were men "of culture, education and means."

However, the country was still a little too young, brawly and independent to stand for that sort of nonsense. The hand-picked candidates of this self-admitted cash-and-culture crowd took an uncultured shellacking, come election day.

It would be nice to report that, having been taught that early lesson, the party bosses took it to heart in subsequent years. Unfortunately, it didn't work out that way.

There were, however, definite results of that defeat administered the Whig—or Federalist—ticket in 1808 The formal sessions soon became public, and in the years that followed it became the custom to select delegates by state conventions or primaries.

* * *

Suspicious Procedure.

NEVERTHELESS, before the convention system was three decades old, the suspicion grew that the formal sessions merely served as a public-pleasing front to cover up for the real nominating which had been moved out of the hall and into the hotel rooms. To say that that suspicion remains strong today is to hit a new height in quoting truisms.

The history of the convention system's development lends strong support to such a suspicion. From a more or less business-like, methodical beginning, it has grown into a mammoth and boisterous celebration, during which speakers deliver addresses which someone else usually has written to delegates who usually are doing something else besides listening

In the early days, the platforms tended to be somewhat specific, perhaps because the needs of a young country tended to be rather specific.

But a study of platforms during subsequent years shows a gradual deterioration into the banal generalities exemplified by planks supporting peace, lower taxes and better living conditions!

And while the orators held forth on the party's firm belief in such unquestioned virtues, history paints a not-too-pretty picture of political bosses busy in the background, reaching an agreement and oiling the convention machine to carry their man in.

Certainly, despite the shenanigans behind the scenes, today's open conventions make shady deals more difficult to arrange than they could be behind closed doors a century and a half ago

But the fact remains that even the most naive voter today is convinced that while he does elect presidents, he still has very little to do with selecting them!

Wild Deer Roam Near

By CALVIN A. BYERS

DRIVING early to the village, a white-tailed deer bounced ahead of us for a bit, then ran up the slope toward the woods, and stood at attention while our car passed by. It was a young buck with spikes of horns and a sleek shiny coat that gleamed like bronze in the sun. Scarcely larger than one of the spring calves in our feed lot, it had all the wild grace of its ancestry.

In late afternoon, I was able to get away alone, and went quietly up along the hill toward the woodland spring From a mossy log, I watched a troop of deer run lightly over the woods floor. There were six—some not much larger than sheep. One doe drank from the rill and I did not notice the others at first. They were lying down.

Then the doe scented me, and stamped her foot warningly. At once the whole troop sprang up and away—over the wire fence as though it did not exist, and off into the brush.

I saw where they had eaten of the low-growing tender plants that grow in this shady woods, and where they had trimmed the lower branches of tender fruit trees in my orchard along the woods edge. I saw their tracks in the oats field, and along the tender corn, and at the edge of the rye, now way over my head and tall enough to hide them from the road.

These are probably the offspring of deer let loose in Mohican State Forest Park—14 miles away—several years ago. Neighbors have reported seeing them, but this is the first time I have known them to come into Honey Creek valley.

As a boy, I saw deer roam at will through the deep valleys of the Pennsylvania mountains. There were bears there, too and wolves and wild turkeys that, in autumn, would make great noisy flights from one ridge top to another. And bobcats, whose screams made small boys' hair stand on end with fright!

These white-tailed deer were the source of both food and clothes for the pioneers. Buckskin garments clad the early settler and venison, fresh, dried and salted, stocked his table.

According to U. S. Biological survey for 1939, there are approximately seven million such deer in the country—one third of them in Michigan.

In Ohio, protective game laws prohibit the killing of these shy animals, except during a short season, in some sections of the state.

Walter Lippmann Speaks

Soviet Union Turns Attention to Asia

The Soviet government usually changes its diplomats when it is preparing to change its policy and it is, therefore, interesting that the new Soviet ambassador and the new Soviet delegates at the U.N. are both specialists in Asiatic affairs.

It may be significant that the arrival of the new diplomats and the so-called peace offensive in Europe should coincide with marked decline in the fortunes of governments and parties in Asia which are associated with Britain, the United States, and the western world.

Thus, it is becoming ever more improbable that Chiang Kai-shek can unify China. There is no certainty that native nationalism in Indonesia, Indo-China and Burma, perhaps even in India and Pakistan, will not turn increasingly to Moscow rather than to London and Washington, for guidance and support. And in the Middle East, neither in Egypt, Iraq, nor Syria are the governing classes, upon whom London has depended, secure against a rising discontent.

On the other hand, the signs are multiplying that the Soviet Union is disposed to recognize that for the time being at least Europe cannot be absorbed, and that an accommodation is necessary if the Soviet Union is to retain an important influence in the future of Europe.

The Czechoslovak coup evoked a more important reaction—namely, American rearmament — than the Kremlin or the Cominform appears to have anticipated. In the cold war for the mastery of Europe the Czechoslovak affair appears to have been the Battle of the Bulge. It has been followed by a policy of appeasement in Finland, Romania and Hungary, by a reduction of the pressure against Greece; by a reduction of the demands on Austria and in Germai by cat-and-mouse tactics designe. it would appear, to avoid a show down.

The crucial question is whether Stalin is testing out a new policy, namely, appeasement in Europe, while nature, assisted by Moscow, takes its course in what were once the realms of empire of the western world. One can say no more than that this is a very plausible theory.

It is consistent with what is now happening — namely, the current peace offensive in Europe—combined with what is happening in China and southern Asia.

It is consistent also with the historic pattern of Russian policy, which is, when repulsed in Europe, to expand into Asia.

CONSISTENT POLICY

It is consistent also with the Marxian dogma that the victory of ..mmunism will follow the collapse of capitalist imperialism. In sia the capitalist empires are in act being liquidated, and it may well be that Stalin, who has always had great respect for American capitalism, who has always been very conscious of Asia, has come to think that Asia, rather than America and the west, is the place where the Marxian prophecy will first come true.

If the hypothesis—that is all it is—is correct, the task of western diplomacy on the one hand is to press forward toward an all-European peace and on the other hand, to work out new ways of preserving legitimate, beneficial and profitable western interests and influence in Asia.

The right response to Stalin's European peace offensive is, it seems to me, to grasp the nettle firmly by asking him what are the terms on which he will agree to the evacuation of Europe and will permit the whole continent, including all the German states, to work out its own economic and political destiny. If he will not agree to that, if the terms he sets for withdrawal are meant to be unacceptable, then it will be plain to Europe that he is not seeking peace but is conducting psychological warfare.

But Stalin's intentions cannot be tested as President Truman's advisers seem to think, by dealing with secondary issues.

Nothing less than a full disclosure of his intentions toward Europe as a whole will do. And that full disclosure cannot be made in words but only by acts, of which the ultimate and decisive act could only be the retirement of the Red army from the Elbe, 500 miles back to the frontiers of the Soviet Union.

The working out of a new policy in Asia is a very much more difficult thing. We have to recognize that the liquidation of great empires means the destruction of authority that is not easily replaced, and the release of passions which are not easily disciplined.

YOU MEET SUCH INTERESTING PEOPLE

(And they have such delightful nicknames!)

"Duke" Ellington originally won his nickname because of his elegant taste in clothes. His always ultra-chic raiment suggested royalty or something mighty close to it—and a Duke was made, if not exactly born. . . . Director Elia Kazan is called "Gadge" by his friends—or if you insist on being formal, "Gadget." But if there's a satisfactory reason for the nickname, I, for one, haven't heard it. . . . Short-haired comic Lou Costello and long-hair conductor Andre Kostelanetz are both called "Costy." What's that the late Rudyard ("Kips") Kipling once said about never the twain shall meet?

The reason for "Honeychile" Wilder's nickname is evident whenever she speaks, which is usually. Her accent positively shrieks, suh, of magnolia blossoms, Dixie belles, and possibly a mint julep or two. . . . Burgess Meredith's first name is frequently shortened to "Buzz"—an apt nickname for this busy-as-a-bee lad. . . . Ever since his press agent days, Russel Crouse has been called "Buck," which is not, I'm sure, meant to imply that he's good at passing the. A more responsible citizen never lived. . . . Childhood pals of John Tyers, the baritone, don't, as might be expected, call him "Johnnie," or "Jack" or even "Ty" (as in Power). They refer to him as "Charlie." As a youngster, John couldn't stop raving about the vocal prowess of the great Chaliapin. He promptly dubbed by his non-linguistic grammar schoolmates, "Charlie Oppin," which eventually got shortened, as such things do, to just plain "Charlie."

In case you're one of the few remaining Americans who doesn't know how Harry Lillis Crosby got his nickname, it's because, when he was knee-high to a microphone, he'd rush upon unsuspecting bystanders, point a pair of index fingers in this ribs, and pipe, "Bing, bing! You're dead!" . . . Funnyman Irwin Corey doesn't have a nickname of his own, but he saw to it that his little daughter, Marjorie Beth, does. Poppa calls her "Macbeth" . . . and Althea, the thrush, is another who's bestowed a strange nickname on one of her offspring. Althea and her husband are rabid baseball fans, so when young Robert arrived his name was promptly transformed to "Bobo" as in Newsom. As their son grew in size and capacity for childish destruction, his parents made the comparison with the baseball hero more complete. They now hail him affectionately as "Bobo Nuisance."

Dancer Anton Dolin's nickname is "Pat," a holdover from a real name he had before he adopted his present stage alias. In the same way, actor Alan Reed is called "Teddy," John Garfield "Julie," and hunk o' man Cary Grant "Archie." . . . Austine Cassini turns her pretty head when hailed as "Bootsie." . . . Connie Sawyer, the giddy comedienne, has her ups and down as "See"—"See" Sawyer, get it? Which isn't a bit more playful than the nickname of "Teeter" Totter, the pretty socialite. . . . And a few impudent mortals have been known to address the glorious Rita Hayworth as "Margie." Like her working nickname, it's, derived from one of the names she was born with, Marguerite.

Comedienne Jane Dulo glories in two nicknames, both completely irrelevant, not to mention irreverent. Since the day when she received in the mail an incorrectly addressed invitation to join a Turkish bath for men only, her intimates have called her "George." Her second nickname "Ginger," goes back even further. In her pigtail days, little Jane performed at an amateur show in her native Baltimore with another budding talent yclept "Pepper" (sic) Mills. A local gazette carried the girls' picture the next day, with a caption evidently thought up by a bored caption writer in the last stages of a galloping pink hangover. He'd dubbed the work of photographic art, "Two spicy young comediennes—'Pepper' Mills and 'Ginger' Dulo!"

"High Fashion at a Low Price" is my motto says Marian Martin, Mansfield News-Journal pattern designer. That is why she has chosen the go-everywhere Sunsemble as her fashion theme for summer. The patio dress shown here is the newest version of those frocks that double for sun and dates. It's fashion at its smartest, featuring that very new, ultra-sophisticated wrap—the stole. New too is the strapless effect and the bra-top. A great skirt swinging wide makes the waistline look tiny, and not shown but in the pattern too is a delicious swish petticoat that turns your dress into a full length dance frock. The seamy side of sewing definitely becomes the bright side when you use a Marian Martin pattern. The Sew Chart, enclosed with each pattern, gives you step-by-step instructions that even a beginner can follow. Remember, also, that pin-fitting and precise fit present no problems when you have a thermoplastic dress form that is molded to your figure, curve for curve. This pattern, 6353, is one of the many Marian Martin sunsembles, featuring the newest, gayest, smartest ways of looking pretty for midsummer. Watch for more of these sunsembles and other Marian Martin fashions for the whole family, shown in this newspaper!

Men's Chorus to Present Songs In a Summer Vein

Music in a lighter vein will entertain Mansfielders at the annual June concerts of the Mastersingers to be presented next Monday and Tuesday nights in the John Simpson auditorium.

Even Marshall Heinbaugh, baritone soloist, has chosen only one operatic number among his two groups of songs.

The program will open with the Signature Song, original composition by A. Lemoine Derr, director, and Dr. F. A. Hoffman, pianist. It will be followed by "Hymn to Night," by Beethoven; "Goin' Home," Dvorak; "At the Mid Hour of Night," Tatton, and "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte.

Malotte's compositions will be sprinkled through the program. Heinbaugh has chosen two for his second series.

For his first group, Heinbaugh will sing "Air From Comus," by Dr. Arne; "Blow, Blow Thou Winter Wind," Quilter; "Tu Lo Sai," by Torelli, and "Largo al Factotum," by Rossini, from "Barber of Seville."

SING 'DESERT SONG'

The third part of the program will be a group by the Mastersingers. The numbers will include "Meadowlands," by Knipper; "The Desert Song," by Romberg; "Up on the Mountain," by David; "Ol' Man River," by Kern, (by request) and "De Gospel Train," by Noble Cain.

Heinbaugh's second series will include five songs. They will be "Pilgrim's Song," by Tschaikowsky; "Song of the Open Road," Malotte; "De Glory Road," by Wolfe; "Thunderin', Wunderin'" by MacGinsey and "David and Goliath," by Malotte.

In the final point chorus, Heinbaugh and the Mastersingers will present "One Alone," by Romberg.

Bentley Ford of Galion, baritone soloist, will sing with the chorus in the second group of songs. Mrs. Marie Porterfield Platt will accompany Heinbaugh.

Programs for the concerts are appropriate for spring and summer. They combine a green and gold motif in the cover with song explanations and Mastersingers officials listed together with the program numbers.

Board of directors of the Mastersingers includes H. Perry Millikin, chairman; Attorney C. H. Freehafer, Dr. B. M. Hathaway, Dr. Hoffman, Louis P. Jisa, James P. Keith, C. H. Platt, Cecil V. Schill and Paul N. Watts. President for the year is Attorney Freehafer.

The program for next week's concerts carries an "In Memoriam" to Carl Schwier, who died May 10. He was a charter member of the chorus.

Directed Mobs In Labor Disputes Top Southern Lynch Violations

NEW YORK—The governors of Iowa and Minnesota recently called out the National Guard to restore peace where strikers of the CIO had cowed the local police. In both cases, the police power had abandoned communities to mobs aroused by professionals.

Directed mobs, such as the CIO employed in the terrible civil war in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and other states when John L. Lewis was chairman, are more efficient than packs of wild-eyed brutes roving over a town.

The directed mob is military. It feints to draw off the cops, then strikes in another part of town. It knows how to do the most damage and where to strike the jugular such as the switches in the municipal power plant.

The union mob, whether disciplined or wild, is more dangerous than the lynching mob, usually regarded as a southern institution.

This can be shown by records of deaths, injuries and destruction. In the years since Roosevelt took over, there has been little mob violence in the southern states as compared with the great strongholds of those Roosevelt political auxiliaries, the CIO and the AFL in the north and along the Pacific coast. And much of that lesser southern record also was the work of Roosevelt's union goons.

There have been thousands of riots and, according to the legal definition of a lynching offered in all the communistic anti-lynching bills, there have been literally thousands of lynchings in Roosevelt's union territory in those years. Lynching, in the definition of those bills, may be nothing worse than a slap in the face in a community whose local government fails to do its utmost to prevent the outrage.

Thus there were hundreds of lynchings in the recent Minnesota Packers' union riots. Actually the ratio of fatal lynchings by Roosevelt's union adherents in the north and far west during the years of Civil war maintained by the unions to those executed by southern mobs is at least 20 to 1.

Moreover, in most of the southern lynchings, the lynchees probably were guilty and would have been put to death anyway, had they gone to trial. But in the fatal lynchings done by the Roosevelt mobs in the union wars there was no violation of any law.

The Roosevelt regime, inherited by President Truman, has frankly insisted that its own mobs have a special right to riot and lynch. All the anti-lynching bills have special clauses which exempt violence and lynchings attributable or traceable to any "labor" disturbance.

That term might seem to mean a strike by a legitimate union of law-abiding citizens against an employer for higher pay. However a "labor" disturbance exists legally under the New Deal rulings wherever any union racketeer tries to extort $1,000 from an employer and calls a strike when the boss turns him down.

If a citizen walks through a picket line of strangers from out of town and they beat him up, that is lynching in the definition of the anti-lynching bills, except that the New Dealers call the situation a "labor" disturbance.

Mansfield Accidents Injure Three

Youth, 11, Struck By Car on South Main

Three persons, including an 11-year-old boy, were injured yesterday in city traffic accidents, police said today.

William J. White, 11, of Clyde, O., suffered abrasions of his right arm and an injury to his right leg when struck by a car driven by Christ Reining jr. of Lexington at South Main and Augustine avenue. Police said the accident occurred at 1:15 p. m.

Reining told police he saw two boys standing on the corner as he approached the intersection and that the White boy darted out in front of his car as he entered the crossing. The boy was treated at General hospital and released.

Harold Pfahler of Shelby received minor body bruises at 3:40 p. m. yesterday when his truck was struck by a backing Pennsylvania freight train at the East Fourth street crossing. Pfahler told police no signal was given at the crossing and that the east safety gate was up. Tower watchman at the crossing told police he thought the truck had time to clear the crossing before the train backed up.

Mrs. Helen Christian, 181 East Second street, was admitted to General hospital for observation after her car collided with another driven by Walter O. Lehnhart, Mansfield, R. D. 6, at East Fourth and Franklin avenue. Police said the mishap occurred at 4:20 p. m.

Lehnhart told police he was traveling east on Fourth street and that Mrs. Christian entered the intersection, traveling south on Franklin avenue. Mrs. Christian said she did not see the other car approaching.

Ceremonies Set Monday

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the construction of the Richland County Tuberculosis sanatorium will be held Monday at 11 a. m. on the gift site southeast of Mansfield on State Route 39, Norman L. Wolfe, county auditor, announced today.

"Mrs. Hattie Hunt, who donated the grounds for the new sanatorium, is expected to turn the first shovel of dirt at the opening ceremony," he said.

Louis Zahn is general contractor on the $800,000 project.

"We hope to have the building finished by spring of next year," he said.

Secretaries Leave For R. C. Meeting

Mrs. Bess Augsburger, executive secretary of the Richland county chapter of the Red Cross, and Jack Sherman, secretary of the Shelby branch, left yesterday for San Francisco to attend the national Red Cross convention.

Robert Black, vice president of the chapter here, will leave Saturday by plane.

Following the convention, Mrs. Augsburger will visit friends in the west before returning to Mansfield, July 4.

MEET IN CITY—Chamber of Commerce notables dined last night at a session at the Westbrook Country club, highlight of the two-day Ohio C. of C. session here. In the upper picture, Author-Farmer Louis Bromfield looked on as John H. Ward, of the Alabama C. of C., last night's guest speaker, was welcomed by C. I. Weaver, president of the Ohio C. of C. Charles A. Eaton jr., executive vice president of the New Jersey C. of C., and Herschel C. Atkinson, executive vice president of the Ohio C. of C., are the others in the picture. Below, chatting informally, are Henry Ernst, secretary of the Canton C. of C.; Harry B. Soulen, president of the Mansfield C. of C.; John Routzon, secretary-manager of the Mansfield Chamber; Floyd J. Southerner Raps Civil Rights Program

A call for a re-alignment of parties so that persons who believe in the same political principles can vote together regardless of where they live was made last night by John H. Ward, executive vice president of the Alabama State Chamber of Commerce.

Speaking before more than 100 directors of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce and their wives at a dinner at the Westbrook country club, Ward denounced President Truman's civil rights proposals as a "threat to free enterprise and the American way of life."

He specifically berated the Fair Employment practice proposal as "against the fundamental right of an employer to operate his own business.

"The anti-lynch law is strictly political," he said, "and the anti-poll tax proposal is not only a bid for votes, but it is unconstitutional.

"As for the proposed anti-segregation law, it is an attempt to legislate social equality and strikes at the fundamental social structure of the South," he asserted.

"If the people of Alabama want to tax themselves to provide for dual education, what business is it of the people of the other states?" he asked.

CALLS PLAN 'POLITICAL'

Terming the entire civil rights program political, he said "we have the sorry spectacle of both parties fighting to advance civil rights, with the majority of both parties opposed to the measures."

He said the great problem facing the nation was not inflation, or the prospect of war with Russia, but the fact that "too many people are looking for something for nothing."

Ward said the civil rights proposals are an "attempt by minority groups to maintain a position that they are not qualified to hold.

"We (the South) won't vote for Truman or any other man who supports this program," he predicted, pointing to the fact that Alabama's eleven delegates to the Democratic convention are pledged to walk out if civil rights planks are put into the Democrats' platform.

The civil rights proposals are an invasion of state's rights, Ward said, adding that the South "has stood with the conservatives of this section of the country in battling for state's rights."

"We know that our congressmen have more in common with many northern Republicans than Democrats," he declared.

Salvation Army Board To Meet

A meeting of the advisory board of the Salvation Army has been called for Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Army headquarters, 47 South Main street.

Col. Fred Malpaas of Cleveland will speak. George H. Smith, board chairman, will preside.

Several matters of importance will be brought before the meeting. Major William Jones said.

R. W. Denig Dies at 39

Robert William Denig, 39, of 274 Superior street, died at his home Thursday night, following an illness of one year.

Mr. Denig was born in Mansfield Dec. 8, 1908, and was a lifelong resident of Mansfield. He was employed by the Westinghouse Electric corporation, where he served as production clerk for 15 years. He was a member of the Eagles lodge, and was cubmaster of Pack No. 8, Cub Scouts.

He was one of the founders of John Todd park and was active in the Park association.

City Groups Map Plan For Merger

Proposal Will Go Before Boards

Eight Ohio city officials, representing the Ohio League of Municipalities and the Ohio Association of cities, drew up a merger proposal at a meeting in Mansfield yesterday.

The proposal will be presented to a joint meeting of the executive boards of the two groups July 13 in Lorain.

Both groups work for the interests of municipal governments. The OAC was formed last year. Its membership includes principally, representatives from cities not represented in the older OLM

Officials said merger of the two groups will prevent duplication of effort and pave the way for official state recognition of the proposed consolidated organization.

Committees representing the two groups recently requested Gov. Thomas J. Herbert to call a special session of the state legislature to provide financial relief for hard-pressed Ohio cities. The governor rejected the request.

Representing the OAC were Mayor Michael DiSalle, Toledo; Mayor Thomas Burke, Cleveland; Mayor Pat Flaherty, Lorain; and Joseph H. Crowley, chief Cleveland legal counsel.

The OLM was represented by Mayor Roy Vaughn, Mayor Charles Slusser, Akron; Gerald D King, Fostoria city auditor, and John Currie, Akron's finance director.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—

H. Wendell Palm, Mansfield Union Bus Terminal manager, received congratulations today on his 35th birthday from fellow Eagle lodge members at the Eagles convention in Cleveland.

Palm, district director for the Eagles lodge, celebrated the anniversary quietly with friends and his family Tuesday night at his home, 585½ West Third street, before leaving to attend the three-day convention in Cleveland.

A native of exington, he came to Mansfield 11 years ago as the Greyhound terminal manager. He is a football and baseball fan. He's a member of the Mansfield Lions club.

FRESH PAINT—

State and federal highways in the Mansfield area were getting their usual spring dressing up today as highway crews began restriping operations on U. S. Route 30. At the same time, state highway patrolmen warned motorists not to cross freshly-painted lines as arrest for this misdemeanor can result in a $25 fine. Officers said that warning signs will be placed at all newly-painted sites. Today, the crews worked Route 30 from Hayesville to the Crawford county line. Scheduled for Monday is U. S. Route 42 from Morrow county to Medina county.

Men Help Complete Project

Playground To Open Monday

Thirty-eight Hermit club members are expected to take their hammers and saws to Hidden Hollow camp tomorrow to help build a cabin in the camp's wooded area.

Letters, suggesting that club members assist in the completion of the building project, were sent out yesterday by Harold Mansfield, club secretary, Russell Gimbel, Friendly House director, said today. Club spokesmen said they would help.

The cabin has been donated to the camp by the Zeta Rho chapter of Delta Theta Tau.

Gimbel said if enough club members report for work on the project the cabin should be completed tomorrow. Gimbel has been working on the project in his spare time.

To expedite the cabin building, Ralph Constance and John Morley of the Midwest Fabricating company have had the lumber pre-cut. Tomorrow when Hermit club members assemble at the camp site, they'll find it all ready to be put into place and nailed.

NEEDED BY JUNE 27

"We must get the cabin up by June 27, opening day of the camp, in order to accommodate the hundreds of boys and girls who are registering for the season, Gimbel said. "The sorority cabin is one of two that will be given this summer. The second one will be erected later."

The cabin building is one of several important projects that are under way at Friendly House for the summer season.

The first supervised playground for several summer at Friendly House will open officially Monday, when Lessie Mae Janes, Senior high graduate this year, takes over as supervisor.

Miss Janes will be assisted by Ruth Waters and Caroline Cline, volunteer workers. She has been busy this week doing the preliminary work toward playground starting and setting up daily schedules. The playground will be open each day from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. and from 1:30 to 5 p. m. for a period of 10 weeks.

The program this year will include soft ball, games and stories and probably a pet show. Other entertainment features will be worked out as the program goes along, Gimbel said.

Boston Sox Top Tribe Again, 8-6

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Left-hander Gene Bearden, top percentage hurler on the Cleveland Indians' mound staff, will uncork his mazda magic tonight in an attempt to halt the league-leaders' four-game losing streak against the runner-up Philadelphia Athletics.

The Indians, who have seen their pitching staff battered four straight times, suffered another defeat at the hands of the Boston Red Sox yesterday, 8-6.

Don Black, sidelined two weeks with a fractured toe, returned to action in quest of his third victory, but was sidetracked again in the first inning because of wildness. Steve Gromek put out the fire after three runs crossed the plate on two hits.

RALLIES TO TIE

The Tribe rallied to tie the score in the bottom half of the frame on singles by Larry Doby, Manager Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon, sandwiched around Hank Edwards' double. Taking advantage of an error by Edwards that would have retired the side, Boston scored another trio of runs in the second, including Vern Stephens' two-run homer.

Gordon's ninth homer with one aboard and Ken Keltner's 16th circuit clout again deadlocked the count in the fourth inning, but the Indians fell behind when Dom DiMaggio clouted a round tripper in the sixth.

The loss cut Cleveland's first place margin to two games over the A's, who have nominated Dick Fowler to oppose Bearden in the opener of a crucial four-game series.

Blonde Girls To Battle For College Crown

By KEN DAVIS

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Two blond college girls—one from Connecticut and the other from Kansas—teed off today in an 18-hole finale to the fourth annual National Women's Collegiate golf tournament.

One was Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Conn., a junior at John B. Stetson Universtiy, Deland, Fla; the other Marilyn Smith of Wichita, Kas., a freshman at the University of Kansas.

Miss Lenczyk, a Curtis cup star and a veteran of tournament golf since she was 11 years old, was conceded the edge over the 19-year-old Kansas—principally because of her superior experience. Miss Smith played in her first tournament two seasons ago.

TWO UNDER PAR

Yesterday Miss Lenczyk strode into the finals with a 6 and 5 verdict over Barbara Canine of western Michigan. She had a two-under par medal of 38 for the out nine.

Miss Smith cut down Alice O'Neal of Rollins College, former Indiana state women's champion, by exactly the same margin, 6 and 5. Her medal, too, was 38 on the first nine.

Observers agreed that Miss Lenczyk had a greater assortment of shorts. She used all of them to win the Canadian open and the all-American open at Chicago last year.

The Kansas girl has a couple of titles of her own, the Kansas State women's crown in both 1947 and 1948, and the Wichita City title in 1946

PITCHING—Bill Voiselle Braves—Received credit for two victories as he hurled winning ball in relief in both halves of the Boston-Chicago doubleheader which Boston won, 7-6 and 8-7.

Record Field To Compete In Olympic Test

MINNEAPOLIS — (INS) — A record 350 athletes from 97 colleges and universities set out in the 27th NCAA track and field games today, properly spurred by visions of the London Olympiad.

The preliminaries today probably will be accompanied by occasional showers in the finals tomorrow. The six point winners in each event automatically qualify for the final Olympic trials, to be held in Evanston, Ill, July 9 and 10.

This is the first of two semi-final tourneys in the U. S. Olympic plan. The other will be the national A. A. U. affair at Milwaukee two weeks hence.

Southern California, which has won 12 NCAA meets, is favored to do it again. The Trojans, 14 strong, are bulwarked by such stars as Mel Patton, "the world's fastest human," aand Miler Roland Sink. Illinois won the team title in 1946 and 1947.

Rumor circulated among coaches and newsmen yesterday that Minnesota's Fortune Gordien would be ineligible for the NCAA on the same ground that caused the barring of Harrison Dillard and Bob Likens. There was no basis for the story.

Joins the Field

PHILADELPHIA—Duke Nalon, record-holding veteran of the raceways, who very nearly won this year's Memorial Day 500-mile classic at Indianapolis, has joined the field for the 100-mile AAA-sanctioned championship race Sunday at Babcock's Langhorne speedway.

Walcott Confident Of Beating Louis

GRENLOCH, N. J.—(INS)—Jersey Joe Walcott declared today that he only has to be "just as good" as he was in his fight with Joe Louis last December to whip the champion Wednesday.

But, he added, "nothing is going to help poor old Joe any."

The bull-shouldered challenger, who won everything but the decision in their first collision, said he'd be trying for a knockout Wednesday.

While he admitted that Louis has been one of the greatest heavyweight champions "because of his actions in and out of the ring," there are still several things wrong with the Brown Bomber as a fighter.

Walcott said:

"Louis has a 'one-way style,' he's a slow thinker, and he's strictly a counter-puncher. Not nearly as smart as Jimmy Bivins.

"He's not the hardest puncher I've ever faced either—Tommy Gomez, Elmer Ray, Curtis Sheppard and Lee Q. Murray all hit harder."

★

POMPTON LAKES, N. J.—(UP) The experts were still differing today on the condition of Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis.

THAT OLD ZING

With his return title bout with Jersey Joe Walcott only five days away, the Brown Bomber appeared to be regaining his old "zing," and also is adapting a defense against a right hand punch.

But in the opinion of others who watched him work four more rounds yesterday against four different sparmates, Louis still is easy to hit. He's not moving too fast—although he's down to the 215 pounds he expects to carry into Yankee stadium next Wednesday night—and he can't rock with the punches like he used to.

Handwarks Pace Mixed Bowling

Florence and Don Handwark walked off with honors in the Colony Bowling alleys mixed doubles league last night, as they rolled a 993 total. Don's 211 effort, best single game of the session, paced them to victory.

Best individual series was turned in by Cliff Forsythe who fired 186-177-207—507. There are three openings left in the Tuesday mixed league which rolls at 8 p. m., it was announced.

Three Teams Tied For Top In Club Loop

Although three teams are tied for first place in the Club softball league, none of the top aggregations will meet in tonight's loop schedule.

Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Veterans Committee and Moose lodge are knotted for first place with three wins in four games. Sons of Herman, defending champions, are fourth with two wins and two defeats.

AVC meets the Hermans in the feature game at Prospect park. The other league encounters pit VFW against the Amvets at Johns park and Moose against American Legion Post 16 at North Lake park.

Last week, AVC handed VFW its first defeat of the season, 6 to 4.

All league games will begin at 6 p. m.

20 Mohicans Will Compete

Twenty Mohricans Sailing club craft will compete in the annual regatta of the Ohio Inter-Club Yachting association at Chippewa lake, near Medina, tomorrow and Sunday.

Mohican skippers racing will be:

Lightnings—Glen Macy, Augie Grotegut, Gene Smart, Dr Mabel Emery and Walter Stevens.

Thistles—Frank Jansen, Frank Bissman, Lee Forup, Bob Fletcher and Jack McKinnon.

"Y" Flyers—Martin Brunner, Fritz Constance, Otis Cummins, Harold Dysart, Roger Roser, Gib Dobson, Dick Tappan, Harry Wilson, Jack Gilbert and Pat Siegenthaler.

Mansfield Team Plays Mt. Vernon

Mansfield Gorman-Rupp plays its second road game of the week tonight when it meets the Mt. Vernon Stone's Grill nine at Mt. Vernon.

The Mansfield softballers are leading the North Central Ohio Inter-City league with four straight victories while Mt. Vernon rests in fifth place, 2½ games off the pace. Only a 16-inning tie with the Willard Elks mars the G-R record.

Manager Nick Weber was still undecided on his starting pitcher selection this morning. He has four pitchers—Jim Regula, Bobby Regula, Ken Windsor and Dale McKinley—ready to go. All have won for G-R this season.

INTER-CITY LEAGUE

Team	W.	L.	Pct.	G B
Mansfield	4	0	1.000
Marion	4	2	.667	1
Ashland	3	2	.600	1½
Willard	1	1	.500	2½
Mt. Vernon	2	3	.400	3½
Tiffin	0	6	.000	5

The lanky Jim "Stretch" Regula made his first league start Wednesday against Ashland and allowed only one run in 4 1-3 innings. Bobby Regula has won three of the four games.

It will be the first meeting of the season between the Mansfield and Mt. Vernon teams. Mt. Vernon's only pair of victories have been at the expense of the cellar-dwelling Tiffin Routh Packers.

The third-place Ashland Indians have a chance to the Marion for second place when they play at Willard in the other league contest tonight.

Shelby Fans Have Own Day

SHELBY — Approximately 400 Shelby residents will board a special train at 5:30 p. m. here today to attend the Cleveland-Philadelphia baseball game in Cleveland tonight.

All available tickets for the "Shelby Day" game had been sold by this morning, the Shelby Junior Chamber of Commerce announced.

The train is scheduled to return at 10:30 p. m., Shelby time, unless the game is delayed.

Control at Fault, Says Bob Feller

By ADE PONIKVAR

CLEVELAND —(INS)— Has the "fireball" of the baseball firmament burned itself into a clinker?

Bob Feller, whose name once drew thousands upon thousands into major league ball parks, answers that it isn't so.

Bob was lambasted for 12 hits before retiring for a pinch-hitter in the eighth inning of Thursday's game with the Boston Red Sox in Cleveland. The not-so-rapid Robert suffered his seventh loss of the season against only five wins.

The performance was enough to raise the familiar chant often heard this year as Feller continues to bumble along in the grip of a slump which has seen him lose his last five starts

"The answer is simple," Bob explains. "I have lost some of my control.

"But there are other things to remember. Look at the record. The fact is that the Indians just don't hit behind my pitching

"Take that night in Washington a few weeks ago. I pitched a 11-inning shutout and still couldn't win. Then in that New York series last week, I was doing as well or better, than any other Cleveland hurler in the series and I was yanked in the seventh for a pinch-hitter after allowing only two runs and five hits

"If those eight men behind you aren't hitting, it doesn't matter what you do."

In Wednesday's tilt with the Red Sox, the strikeout king and author of the hurler's manual, "how to pitch," failed again to receive the support he said he is lacking—but he also gave up seven runs on 12 hits before he was taken out. He had allowed only three runs in the preceding 25 innings

Feller made his comments on his failure to live up to pre-season expectations just prior to the contest. The Tribe hurler added that it was true, and the records bear him out, that he works best every fourth day.

"I would like to add that spring training was thrown at least two weeks back because of rain," Feller explained "It rained five days in San Francisco and when I finally did pitch, my arm didn't feel right for two weeks after that

"All that talk about losing my fast ball, outside activities and such is just a lot of nonsense. Control is the thing, and this year I just haven't got what I used to have."

Locke Leads

CHICAGO — (UP) — Bobby Locke, the South African golfing wizard, led the field today at the quarter mark of the sixth annual victory open by virtue of a record-smashing six-under-par 65.

Verdova To Wed

COLUMBUS —(UP)— Alex Verdova, Lakewood, ace Ohio State university football and baseball player, will marry Florence Marie Shain, Canton, tomorrow afternoon, it was announced today.

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Midwestern midget auto racing champion Ralph Pratt of Kansas City and Eddie Johnson of Los Angeles meet again Sunday night at Sportsman park in suburban Bedford

Bill Voiselle Wins Both Ends of Twin Bill

Boston Leads Loop; A's Defeat Tigers

(By Associated Press)

The magic touch of Billy Southworth is working wonders on still another ball player, Pitcher Bill Voiselle.

The once disgruntled curve baller of the New York Giants has turned into the Boston Braves' biggest winner under the patient guidance of Boston Billy.

Last year Voiselle had won one and lost four when the Giants swapped him and cash for Pitcher Mort Cooper. He righted himself almost at once and won eight while losing seven for the Braves. This season he's won seven and lost three, although he slumped after winning his first four games.

Two of those victories came yesterday against the Chicago Cubs. Voiselle came to the relief of Warren Spahn in the second inning of the first game of a twin bill. The Braves trailed, 5-0, but went on to win, 7-6. Then in the nightcap he was called upon in the ninth with the score tied, 7-7. He put out the side, then retired for Pinch Hitter Bill Salkeld. Salkeld drew a base on balls from Jess Dobernic with the bases loaded and forced in the winning run.

The pair of triumphs gave Boston undisputed possession of first place in the National league, a half game ahead of Pittsburgh.

HOMERS DON'T HELP

The Pirates took the measure of the New York Giants, 9 to 8, despite four New York home runs They came from behind on a homer by Ed Stevens with two aboard in the seventh, added four more in the eighth and then outlasted a four-run Giant rally in the last of the eighth.

Stan Musial feasted on Philadelphia pitching for the second straight game as the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Phillies, 4 to 1. Musial had a triple and two singles in three times at bat

Cincinnati beat Brooklyn, 5 to 3, in the other National league game. Rookie Howard Fox gave up all three runs in the first inning, but the Dodgers couldn't catch up with him after that.

BLOWS IN FOURTH

Joe Hatten blew up in the fourth when he issued four walks and the Reds scored four runs

Cleveland's front-running Indians suffered their fourth loss in a row, this time to Boston, 8 to 6.

The Philadelphia Athletics, who move in to Cleveland tonight for a four game series, advanced to within two games of the Indians by defeating Detroit, 5 to 2.

Washington was rained out of a night game in St. Louis and New York and, Chicago in the American league weren't scheduled.

Best Fishing In Ohio at Charles Mill

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Three-fourths of the Ohio lakes surveyed by the state conservation department today promised "good" fishing on the basis of reports made to the department.

The best bet for anglers during the week ending June 12 was Charles Mill reservoir near Mansfield where an average of 2.02 fish per hour were pulled in.

Half of the catch at Charles Mill was crappies. Bullheads and carp dominated the remaining catch with a few bluegills reported.

A total of nine lakes reported "good" fishing, and three reported "fair" catches. For the first time in many fishing bulletins, no lakes were listed as "poor" in prospects.

Among lakes listed as "good," in addition to Charles Mill, were:

North reservoir near Akron—Average catch one fish an hour including 79 per cent bluegills, 10 per cent crappies and the balance perch and miscellaneous.

Seneca lake — Average catch 1 56 fish per hour. Crappies dominated the catch here with 83.6 per cent. Other fish pulled in included bluegills, bass and channel catfish.

Leesville lake near New Philadelphia—Average catch 1 1 fish per four including 84 per cent bluegills, 11 per cent crappies, three per cent bass and two per cent bullheads.

Indian lake near Bellefontaine —Average catch 1 19 fish per hour. The catch here included 51.75 per cent crappies, 16 05 per cent channel catfish, five per cent bullheads, 7.58 per cent perch, 14 8 per cent bluegills and a few carp.

Drizzle Postpones Welterweight Bout

CHICAGO — (AP) — The battle for the world's welterweight championship must hang in the balance until next Monday night.

The bout between Ray "Sugar" Robinson, 147 pound titleholder, and his challenger, Bernie Docusen, the swifty from New Orleans, was put over until Monday because of a drizzling rain and heavy overcast last night. They were to have met in a 15-round title bout in Comiskey park, home of the Chicago White Sox. The White Sox are using their ball park for the next three days, with Monday being the first vacant day.

Publinx Tourney Launched Today

TOLEDO — The top talent of Ohio's pay as you go golfers launched the first of three daily-double rounds today in quest of the state's public links championship.

Sunningdale's hills and narrow fairways provided the par 37-34 —71 test for the 64 match play survivors of a dozen qualifying tournaments held throughout Ohio. The field includes Bernie Mathias and Arnie Adams of Mansfield.

Know Your Golf Shots

By HERMAN BARRON
AP Newsfeatures

There are two things to remember in playing the No. 8 iron.

1—With this club your feet should be a little closer together than when using the longer irons.

2—Use a slightly open stance favoring the right foot This is done by taking the left foot back about 2 or 3 inches from the square stance.

FIFTH OF A SERIES

Another slight change in playing the 8 iron is in the pivot. Here the pivoting of your body is restricted somewhat as is the swing which becomes slightly shorter. But the club should still be gripped on the end.

As in all shots, the head should remain steady with your eyes on the ball throughout the entire swing

Junior Baseball Nine Meets Pair, Grays Play Galion

The American Legion Juniors baseball team was putting on the final finishing touches today for its biggest week end of baseball so far this year.

Manager Dewey Durant's team is scheduled to travel to Marion for a game tomorrow afternoon and then return to be host to Shelby Sunday at Liberty park. Both opponents are Legion Junior aggregations.

Sunday's game here will start at 2:30 p. m as will the contest at Blue Goose diamond, where the Mansfield Grays engage the Galion Merchants.

Other games in the area Sunday will take Ontario to Lucas and the Butler Merchants to Cardington.

Heads League

LOUDONVILLE — Karl Leininger has been named president and Bob Snyder secretary of the Loudonville softball league, which opened play this week. Two more teams are needed to complete the circuit. All games are to be played at night.

Ted Williams Tops All-Star Balloting

CHICAGO—(INS)—Hard-hitting Ted Williams was still running ahead of the field today in the balloting for position on the 1948 major league all-star team.

The Boston Red Sox left fielder has compiled 4,783 votes to maintain his lead over Lou Boudreau, Cleveland manager-shortstop, who has collected 4,622 ballots for second place.

Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals jumped into third place among individual leaders with a total of 4,419 votes. He is now 129 votes ahead of Joltin' Joe DiMaggio, New York Yankee centerfielder.

Musial, Card outfielder, is also leading the National league contestants. Runner-up is another Card outfielder, Enos Slaughter.

TWO CHANGES

In one of two changes since yesterday, Mickey Vernon of the Washington Senators, moved into the lead in the race for the American league's starting first base position. George McQuinn of the Yanks had been first.

George Kell of the Detroit Tigers regained the top position from Cleveland's Ken Keltner at third base in the other change.

The nation-wide voting, conducted by 448 newspapers, radio stations and magazines, opened last Tuesday and will continue until midnight July 5. The all-star game will be held at Sportsman's park in St. Louis July 13.

Expect Forty At Reunion

More than 40 persons will attend the 40th anniversary reunion of Mansfield high school's 1908 football team Sunday, according to Tom Scott, who is in charge of attendance

The reunion will start at noon at Oak Park, six miles east of Mansfield on Route 30. Attending will be members of the football team, which lost only one game, a few fans and some 1908-09 basketball and baseball players.

Just to show how much the game has changed in 40 years, Jim Carrigan, captain of the 1908 team, will model one of the present Senior high football uniforms.

Fifty Compete

OXFORD — (INS) — Fifty youthful Ohio golfers, none of them over 19 years old, will descend on Oxford tomorrow for the first state junior golf tournament.

Zimmerman Gets Fine 32 At Coolridge

Pete Zimmerman really fractured par in the Sons of Herman golf league yesterday on the Coolridge links.

Zimmerman fired a two-under-par 32, one of the best scores turned in on a Mansfield course this season. Three Herman golfers—Richard Gaubatz, Nick Loris and Steve Stirtzinger—had 35's. Gaubatz needed his "hot" night as his opponent, long-driving Pete Thoma, came in with a 36.

The league-leading Presidents won all five points from the Managers. Loop standings are: Presidents, 28; Bartenders, 23; Treasurers, 22½; Janitors, 21; Memberships, 19; Trustees, 17½; Guards, 16½, and Managers, 11½.

CIO Leader Accuses GOP Of Bad Faith

Bittner Asks Repeal Of Taft-Hartley Law

PHILADELPHIA —(UP)— The CIO yesterday accused the Republican party in Congress of breaching "the solemn commitments made in the labor planks of the 1944 platform."

CIO executive board member Van A. Bittner urged the GOP's pre-convention resolutions committee to repudiate the record of the 80th Congress and adopt a platform "which will give aid and comfort to the working people"—not to their enemies.

He asked the committee to recommend that the convention commit all Republican candidates to work for repeal of the GOP-sponsored Taft-Hartley labor act.

He also called for improvement in the wage-hour law, a boost in the minimum wage, expansion of the social security system, re-imposition of price and "effective" rent controls, more money for the labor department, federal aid to education, housing legislation, and a civil rights program.

Bittner outlined his views to the resolution committee's subcommittee on labor and social welfare. He recalled to subcommittee members that, in 1944, the Republican convention praised labor for its "magnificent productive effort" during the war.

"We did not expect, however," he said, "that 'this magnificent productive effort' . . . would be rewarded by a wave of repressive legislation directed against labor when the Republican party assumed control of Congress in 1946."

He said the Taft-Hartley law is "one-sided, unconstitutional and injurious to free collective bargaining."

Flood Control Bill Approved

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congress sent to the White House Thursday $129,400,000 authorization for flood control and navigation projects.

Final congressional action on the legislation was taken by the House which agreed to the $129,400,000 compromise figure approved Wednesday night by the Senate.

The bill makes no money available. It makes the projects eligible for appropriation by Congress later. The bill authorizes $330,000 for Reno Beach, Toledo, O.

Dragged Mile By Car, Dies

WILMINGTON —(INS)— A 17-year-old youth died in Hale hospital in Wilmington Thursday several hours after he was dragged for nearly a mile under an automobile.

James Clemmer of Route 3, Wilmington, was reported by the state highway patrol to be the victim.

Police said he was dragged by an auto driven by George H. Wright, 24, also of Route 3, Wilmington.

Wright told the patrol he noticed what he thought was a bundle of rags lying in the road five miles outside Wilmington. He said he straddled the bundle with the wheels of his car but after driving almost a mile noticed that the car was dragging. He found Clemmer conscious, with his right leg wedged between a wheel and the chassis.

Conventions Culminate 4 Years' Work

Colorful Events Attract Nation

By WILLIAM WIDDER

PHILADELPHIA—(INS)— America's Republican and Democratic conventions are the end-result of four years of arduous work by both major political parties.

Replete with noise, bands, colorful bunting—in short, many of the trappings of a circus — the nominating conventions are a culmination of activity.

This activity has gone on—chiefly on state (rather than national) levels—since 1944. State and local elections are conducted each year.

Each state, city and municipality can determine its own regulations for the tenure of office of its elected officials.

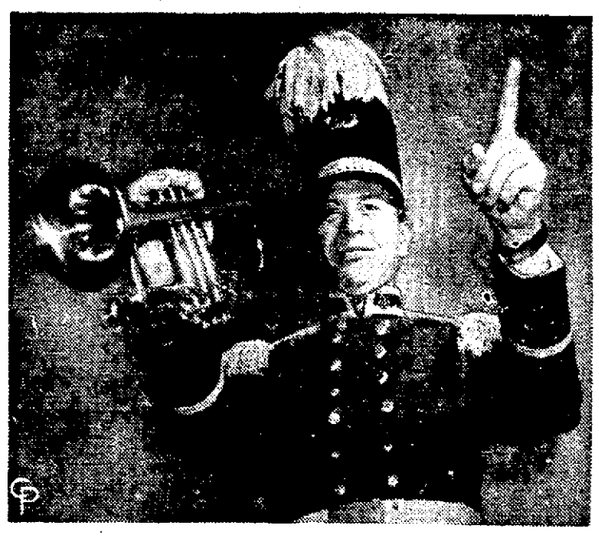
This total absence of uniformity means that since 1944, for example, the American people in the 48 states and three territories—Hawaii, Alaska and Puerto Rico—have voted for about 10,000 state legislators and officers, and 800,000 county, city and other local officers!

Congressional elections are held every two years, and presidential and vice-presidential elections every four years. Each congressional year the entire house of representatives — 435 members — and about one-third — or 32 of the 96 senators are up for re-election.

Under constitutional provision, a senator is elected for six years and a representative for two. The election system is arranged to concur with these tenures.

The fourth-year presidential and congressional voting is, of course, the most vital because it gives either party an opportunity to seize control of both the executive and legislative branches of the government.

BUSIEST MAN among early arrivals at Philadelphia for 1948 Republican national convention is Carroll Reece, chairman of the GOP national committee.



GOP MUSICAL LOOK—Ornate bandmaster's uniform which brightened first Republican national convention in 1856 was model for uniform Meyer Davis wants to wear at opening Monday of 1948 convention at Philadelphia. Davis is musical director for convention.

Philadelphia Ready To Give Conventions Royal Welcome

PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — The "City of Brotherly Love" is prepared for some of the most dramatic days in its history.

On June 21, Philadelphia will extend its traditionally cordial hand to more than a thousand delegates to the Republican nominating convention.

Exactly three weeks later — on July 12 — the Queen City of Pennsylvania will graciously roll out the welcome mat for the thousand-odd delegates to the Democratic convention.

For one month, the city will become a sort of international cynosure. Newsmen and women, television and movie cameras will record the spectacle of "democracy at work" as it unfolds on the floor of Philadelphia's Convention hall.

It is, indeed, singularly fitting that both political parties chose this city, founded by the Quakers in the seventeenth century, for their 1948 conclaves.

For the convention method of nominating presidential and vice-presidential candidates is an integral part of America's political democracy. And no city has done more in helping to shape that democracy than Philadelphia.

This metropolis — now the third largest in the country — was the capital of the United States in the first years of the nation's existence.

The men who drafted the Declaration of Independence and who forged a constitution in the heat of violent political contention sat in Philadelphia's Independence hall.
